APPETIZER CHEESE PIE is the latest. Tangy and delectable, the men folk will love it. Nice to know—it's made well in advance.

Appetizer Cheese Pie Hits the Spot

Looking for an appetizing new idea? Try Appetizer Cheese Pie for your holiday entertaining. This delightful appetizer (or first course) is made of such ingredients as unflavored gelatine, Roquefort cheese, nippy spices and whipped cream, and the ingredients are blended together in a delicate, firm pie filling. Simply chill, and when you are ready—serve! Then wait for the compliments.

APPETIZER CHEESE PIE
2 envelopes unflavored gelatine
1 1/4 cups milk
6 oz. Roquefort or bleu cheese, mashed
1/4 cup lemon juice
1/4 cup chopped parsley
1/4 cup diced pimiento
2 tsp. grated onion
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. Tabasco
1 1/2 cups heavy cream, whipped
1 9-inch baked pastry shell

Chill until mixture is the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Fold in whipped cream.

Pile into 9-inch baked pastry shell. Chill until firm. Garnish with a ring of sliced cherry tomatoes and small sprigs of parsley. Cut in wedges to serve. Yield: 12 appetizer portions.

Sprinkle gelatine over milk in saucepan. Place

Vegetables Add Color to Meals

Dressed up or down as you prefer, you'll find that the addition of a fresh, well-seasoned vegetable adds much to any meal. Select your vegetables for color, texture and flavor and capitalize on the extra qualities that each has to offer.

Available the year round, are golden carrots, crisp cabbage, cauliflower, bright spears of broccoli, Brussels sprouts, squash, onions, celery, green peas, tomatoes and, of course, iceberg lettuce and other salad greens.

Remember, too, that while fresh vegetables contribute so much in the way of taste and eye appeal, they are also rich in important vitamins and minerals you and your family need each day.
