Warner Hula Bowl Eyed

A midget division Pop War-ner football team from Tor-rance has been invited to play in the Hula Bowl game in Hawaii Dec. 18. The team is the Torrance Chargers. The only condition for playing in the postseason game is the accumulation of $3.700 for travel expenses.

game is the accumulation of $3,700 for travel expenses.
Fred Peterson, president of the Torrance Pop Warner Fcotball Association, announced the project has been sanctioned by his organization and the team is authorized to raise funds for the trip.

trip.
The Chargers are one of eight peewee, midget and bantam weight football teams in

The Chargers were third in South Bay Conference with a 7-2-1 record. The team lost to the unbeaten Gardena Bolts, 13-7, and the Lawndale Bucs. 14-13.

The Gardena team is reportedly headed for Japan and Lawndale is supposedly wrapping up details for a Hawaiian trip.

The Chargers are engaged in an all-out crusade for funds for their mission. It is the first such venture in the history of Torrance Pop Warner Football Ben Wallace, chairman of the fund raising committee, said most of the money will be contributed by the par-ents. But Wallace said, "There are families which absolutely cannot 'kick in' $50 to $100.

"Making a barnstorming trip of this kind is not just for the sake of playing a football game," said Wallace. "The educational and socialeconomic experience for these pre-high school young-sters is most invaluable. Once the Torrance Chargers arrive in Hawaii, their hosts will entertain them without further financial obwithout further financial obligations on the part of the Chargers. This is customary for all Pop Warner bowl games.

The Chargers are busy helping their own monetary cause by collecting books of trading stamps, holding a bake sale, and all the typical desparation fund-raising gradies goodies. Wallace said the impor-

wantee said the impor-tance of identifying the com-munity with youth programs of this type warrants lump contributions of $50 or $100 by 'able' citizens.

For most of the Chargers this is their third year of Pop Warner tackle football. The team was drafted at the start of the season from the peewee Oilers and Vikings. The Oilers last year won South Bay Conference chamDisneyland Bowl at Anaheim

Disneyland Bowl at Anaheim.
The Chargers are coached by Cloise Timms, Norman Olson and Ralph Hogue.
Fred Peterson, president of the Torrance Pop Warner Association, said 27 players and five adult chaperones will make the trip if sufficient funds are raised. He is not included among the five suincluded among the five su-

Peterson said the selection of the Chargers among the eight teams from Torrance was done by mutual agreement of the group.

As an official activity of Pop Warner Football, the Southern California playoffs will be held at West High Sunday beginning at 1 p.m. Three divisional championshin games will be played. ship games will be played. A donation of $1 will go to de-fray the Chargers' anticipated

TAKING CHARGE . . . Of the kitchen details, Vince Agapito, Jerry Snyder, Rick Constantino and Jerry Wallace of the Pop Warner Chargers work on a bake sale to raise funds for their trip to Hawaii in two weeks. The Torrance team plans (Press-Herald Photo)

BILL TAPP . . . Palos Verdes halfback ranks among the all-time great running backs, having scored 20 touchdowns and 1343 yards this season. His team plays Foothill for CIF "AA" championship in foot-ball Friday night. (Press-Herald photo)

RUNNING BACK

Press-Herald SPORTS

CIF Champ

Holtel Still Up in Cloud

Press-Herald Staff Writer

It's pretty hard to get into the clouds on a clear day, but West High Cross Country coach Bob Holtel

And if Gemini 7 astronauts James Lovell and Frank Borman should report seeing a man floating around, don't be surprised.

Holtel has been in the clouds since Thursday afternoon when his cross country team won the CIF "A" division title, the first ever won by a Torrance school and the first CIF championship post-ed by a West High athletic team. Two outstanding football Two outstanding football Holtel practically accom-games spice the city playoffs panied his seven man team semi-finals which will again around the 1.8-mile Long be played as a doubleheader Beach course, shouting en-couragement to them all the

Gardena In City Playoffs

Tartars Win Pacific Shores

BART JOHNSON . . . Torrance High junior basketball player was named the outstanding player in the Pacific Shores Tournament Saturday night. (Press-Herald photo)

Bill Tapp May Be 'Greatest'

Fity years from now Bill Tapp will be remembered. Startary afternoon at East Cardon (91) against West-verse High School. There have been very few like him whether when the year lesses there will be an expected in Search and the School. There have been very few like him whether when the year lesses the protection of the search of the se

Johnson Named Tourney's Best

By HENRY BURKE
Press-Herald Sports Editor
"The Miracle Worker" was staged in magnificent manner at the Torrance High auditorium over the weekend, but at the Redondo High gymnasium Bart Johnson won the "Yacademy Award" and Coach Will Boerger was hugged by all the pom-pom girls.

Winning the first basketball tournament in the history of Torrance High second like a miracle in the list.

Winning the first basketball tournament in the list-tory of Torrance High seemed like a miracle in itself, but it actually took place before 1,600 spectators at RUHS Saturday night.

The Tartars' great basketball accomplishment in the 14th Pacific Shores Tournament included victories over Glendale, 73-39; Redondo, 50-49; Palos Verdes, 65-46; and Mira Costa, 64-55.

The startling past of it all. Torrance trailed Mira

The startling part of it all, Torrance trailed Mira Costa by four points at the end of the third quarter and came through with clutch free throwing to pull away in the final two minutes.

the final two minutes.

As time ran out the Tartars played it so safely controlling the ball, Bart Johnson refused to take a shot during the final 10 seconds. Instead he threw the ball to the ceiling when the final buzzer sounded.

Bart, a junior, was named the "player of the tournament." He scored 31, 17, 23 and 16 points, an 87-point total, but he was guarded like an armored truck by Redondo, P.V., and 'Costa.

Beating Tournage would have been easy had Johnson.

dondo, P.V., and 'Costa,

Beating Torrance would have been easy had Johnson been the only obstacle in the game, but the supporting cast was heroic.

The Mustangs used a tight man-to-man defense, with two alternating on Johnson.

Several times Bart made it hard on them by weaving in and around everybody like a game of "follow-the-leader."

Meanwhile Robin Fisher would slip through a gap in the defense and drive-in for a layup. Together with his eight free throws, Robin had a much easier time than Bart in getting 16 points.

Fisher, who blayed behind Bob Brennan last year, was so excited after the game he lost the gold basketball awarded each member of the winning team.

Robin was in the dressing room before he realized he lost it, then ran back upstairs in his stocking feet and found the treasured souvenir under the team bench.

Rich Kreul, the high scorer with the junior varsity a year ago, got five points in the "big game." Moving to a more important varsity role, Kreul says he was the man closely guarded last year, but now with the concentration on Johnson, life on the court seems easy going. Guard Bill Doyle has become an important newcomer to the first team, Bill blamed himself for being propped from the junior varsity last year for "indifference".