Channel Changes Approved

County supervisors have approved a change in the type of surfacing to be used on ramps and access roads now under construction as part of the final unit of Dominguez Channel flood control project in the Carson area.

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn said the action was recommended by County Flood Control District Chief Engineer Walter J. Wood.

It affects the channel section running between Avalon Boulevard and Vermont Avenue.

Under the change, contractor Peter Kiewit Son's Co. will place two inches of asphaltic concrete over four inches of rock base for the roads and ramps. This replaces the originally planned plant-mixed, cement treated surfacing.

The Dominguez Channel, an 18-mile waterway running from Inglewood to an outlet in the Los Angeles Harbor, provides flood relief for cities and communities of the Centinela Valley and South Bay during heavy rains.

Sheriff Pitchess Urges Holiday Traffic Safety

The Christmas season, and perhaps most important, the season, and will be especially vigilant throughout the holiday period, but we need your help if the Holiday Season is to remain a time of happiness for us all."

"This Department's 5,000 man force has been alerted to the potential dangers of the holiday period, but we need your help if the Holiday Season is to remain a time of happiness for us all."

"Alcohol, speed, darkness and pedestrian errors are the four major causes of Holiday accidents that can be dealt with by an aware and alert public. These four ingredients can become a formula for death. The freeways will be particularly crowded, so if you plan to use them allow ample time to arrive at your destination. Drive with caution and courtesy, observing all speed limits, the rules of the road.
