GETTING READY FOR SANTA'S VISIT

These four children wanted to make certain all was in readiness for Santa's visit today as members of the Redondo Beach Dianias stage their annual Christmas party this afternoon. Holding the angel chimes are Curt Lindgren, 5, and Lynn Hausman, 6. Checking the procedure from the floor are Sharon Hausman, 2, and Celia Hausman, 4. Santa had promised a bag full of surprises on his visit to the party. (Press-Herald Photo)

Santa Will Visit

Children at Party Today

Santa Claus will arrive three days early this year, with a bag full of surprises, to visit the children of the Redondo Beach Dianias at the annual Christmas party this afternoon at 1 o'clock at the clubhouse, 400 Broadway in Redondo.

Mrs. George Easton, chairman, announces that entertainment for the children will consist of a group of Polish dancers in authentic costume, and four accordion players from the Dorothy School of Music. Also on the agenda is a magician from the Torrance YWCA.

Refreshments include punch and Christmas cookies to be enjoyed by both mothers and children.

Youth chairman of the Dianias Junior Woman's Club has asked each child attending the party to bring a gift for delivery to the Child Welfare Service. The Welfare Service will in turn deliver these gifts to children 6 to 10 years of age in foster homes of Redondo Beach. Candy sticks have also been donated to be given to the Welfare Service.

Mrs. Easton will be assisted by Meses. Edwin Porwath, Stanley Duffill, William Tolliffe and Robert Dunn.

Redondo Beach Dianias are affiliated with the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina District.

AN INTRODUCTION TO CHRISTMAS PAST

Carolyn and Dean Roberts, children of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Roberts, 1110 Patronella Ave., are introduced to a reproduction of Raphael's Madonna of the Chair during a visit to El Camino College's "Madonna Row" display with their mother. The newest painting, added to the growing collection last year, is "The Madonna del Collo Longo," copied from the original work of the Italian mannerist, Parigianino. The reproductions are prepared under the direction of art instructor Mildred Walker, and will be on display until Jan. 3. (Press-Herald Photo)

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH LANDERVILLE
Silver Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Landerville, 1121 Cranbrook Ave., were feted to a surprise celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary by more than 250 friends, relatives, neighbors, and their four children, Frank, Colette, Denise, and Patricia.

The gala event, held at the home of the honorees, was highlighted by the arrival of Mrs. Landerville's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Schnitzler of Canada, and other out-of-town guests.

With the age-old theme of silver prevailing throughout the living room and den, bells, streamers, and two beautifully-adorned cakes blended in with the decorative display of gifts and food.

Mr. Landerville, an employee of the Columbia Steel Co. for 30 years, was married to Canadian-born Beulah Schnitzler at the Nativity Catholic Church, 1447 Encracia Avenue, on Dec. 14, 1940. Many wedding guests were on hand to celebrate the Landerville's silver anniversary.

The Landerville's four children are Frank, 23, married and living in Inglewood; Colette, 19, an employee of Garrett Manufacturing Co.; Denise, 17, a senior at Torrance High School; and Patricia, 16, a sophomore at the same school.

Guests included Dr. and Mrs. Anthony Nerad of Palos Verdes, Mr. and Mrs. Gil Derouin of Torrance, Mr. and Mrs. Aime Rivard of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Don Butman of Woodland Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Armaad Bergeron of Riverside; Mr. and Mrs. Herb Morin of Riverside, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thornhill, Mr. and Mrs. John Cronon, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Norman, Mrs. and Mrs. Art Leighton, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Wark, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Hedde, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Alan, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brandset.

FINISH DECORATING TREE

Members of the Candy Strippers at Harbor General Hospital put the finishing touches on a 12-foot Christmas tree in the main lobby at the hospital. The tree was donated and decorated by the teenagers who do volunteer work at the hospital. Mrs. Marguerite B. McAllister, chief of patient service and supervisor of the Candy Striper program, said the tree was decorated with more than 100 red ornaments. She called it "the most beautiful in the hospital."
