

SO THAT ALL MAY SEE

Local residents will be afforded the opportunity to see the art work of seniors from local high schools who have entered the Hallmark Art Contest co-sponsored by the Torrance Woman's Club and the Junior Club next Saturday at the Torrance Recreation Center. Preparing to setup the show, which will be held from 10:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m., are Junior Club members, from left, foreground, Mmes. Carl Messmer, vice president; Douglas Hedde, fine arts chairman; back, Mmes. Robert Dodd, Harold D. Smith and Frank Ashford.

Hallmark Contest Entries

Students to Display Art

Art work of high school seniors from the Torrance schools, Narbonne and Bishop Montgomery high schools, who have entered the Hallmark Art Contest, co-sponsored in Torrance by the Torrance Woman's Club and the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, will be on display at the Torrance Recreation Center in the Civic Center complex Saturday, Jan. 8, from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Judging will take place at that time, with the first place winner receiving an award of $100, and the second place winner $25. Theme of the contest is "Help Freedom Grow."

The local winners' work will be submitted to Marina District where it will compete with twelve other clubs for the honor of representing the District at the state level. The national judging will take place in April.

The Hallmark Art Contest is an annual national contest sponsored by the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Hallmark awards three scholarship on the national level.

The Torrance Junior Woman's Club is affiliated with Marina District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, Junior Membership.

Bethel Has Busy Month

Torrance Jobs Daughters were given instructions at their first meeting of this term on Dec. 7. Presiding as Honored Queen was Miss Robin Bingham. Instructions were given by Mrs. Carolyn Petersen, deputy grand guardian. Also present at the meeting was Charles Moore, Bethel associate guardian. On Dec. 21, the girls met for a regular session after which they went Christmas caroling at a local hospital. After caroling, they returned to the Torrance Masonic Temple for refreshments which were served by members of the Bethel Guardian Council.

'Y' Sets Guitar Classes

Classes in beginning and intermediate guitar for children (7 to 11 years), teenagers, and adults are being offered at the Torrance YWCA, 2320 W. Carson St. Instruction includes the basic steps in folk guitar and no prior knowledge of music is necessary. Children's classes will be offered Saturday mornings from 10 to 11 and one weekday from 4 to 5 and 5 to 6 p.m. The classes will meet once a week for eight weeks and the fee is $5 for the eight 1-hour lessons.

Teenage guitar is scheduled Tuesdays from 4 to 5 p.m. and an intermediate class from 5 to 6 p.m. with Miss Dorothy Denny as the instructor. The fee is $5 for eight 1-hour lessons. Other beginning classes will start on Wednesday and Thursday.

Guitar for adults and older teenagers will be offered with Mr. Gary Hart as the instructor on Tuesday evenings from 8 to 10 p.m. to start immediately.

Other beginning classes for adults will be offered Tuesday evenings from 6 to 8 p.m. and Friday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. These classes meet weekly for two hours for eight weeks and the fee for the eight 2-hour lessons is $10.

Classes for children and teenagers are limited to 12 students, and adult classes are limited to 20.

Following the current session, there will be an additional eight weeks of intermediate and advanced guitar classes offered to students who wish to continue lessons.

Registration and additional information may be obtained by telephoning the Torrance YWCA.

Sisterhood Presents Pianist at Luncheon

Temple Menorah Sisterhood will present Erwin Jospe, pianist, conductor and lecturer, at its traditional birthday anniversary luncheon Jan. 10 at 11:30 a.m. This is the Sisterhood's 19th anniversary.

Mr. Jospe will lecture on Jewish folk music and how Jewish history reflects what we sing. Although an authority in the field of Jewish music, his musical activities are not limited to this field as he is a dynamic musician, whose interests range

Mrs. Jones Honored on Birthday

Mrs. Chris Jones of Torrance was a surprised guest of honor at a party honoring her 75th birthday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon S. Jones, 2054 Reynolds Drive.

Mrs. Jones' entire family gathered on the patio for the surprise party. A buffet dinner was served and the patio was decorated in holiday colors.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Barnes Hunt and their children, Shelle, Danny, Janet, Wayne, and Linda of Orange, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jones of Manhattan Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jones and family of San Pedro, Mr. and Mrs. Dryan Jones of Harbor City, and Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Suggs of Hermosa Beach.

Other guests were Gordie and Allison Jones, who assisted the host and hostess, and Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Ebersold of Calimesa, and Sharon West and Frank R. Brower of Torrance.

widely through music and the performing arts.

At the request of the United States State Department, the artist has given some 50 concerts and lectures in Tokyo, Hong Kong, Manila, Singapore and at principal universities throughout South-East Asia. At present, Mr. Jospe is Dean of the School of Fine Arts at the University of Judaism.

Mrs. Alan Steen, program chairman, will present the guest at the luncheon. Hostesses are Mrs. Alvin Toffel and Mrs. George Lewison. Baby sitting will be available at the Temple.

Series on Carefree Living Opens

All homemakers of the South Bay and Centinela Valley areas are invited to attend a free series entitled "The ABC's of Carefree Living" presented by the Southern California Edison Co.'s home economists.
