JANUARY 19, 1966

WILD AND WOOLEY ARE THE WILD

It was a typical Wilder Brothers opening last Tuesday night at Marineland when this zany but talented group kicked off the 1966 season with their rollicking, fun-packed and solidly musical presentation at the Interstate Hosts' beautiful Galley West Restaurant down on the tip of the Palos Verdes Peninsula. (That's a SHORT line?)

From the first minute these six "wildies" hit the stand, until the last dog was hung (you'll excuse the expression), they kept their appreciative opening-night audience alternately entertained, convulsed, amused and in a high state of exhilaration with their wild and way-out antics.

As always, these five guys and a gal put together one of the most entertaining shows to ever hit the boards. They don't leave a stone unturned to twist it into something new and different, still retaining some of their old stand-by gags and gags. On the distaff side, for example, Linda Wright can't be topped when she renders her "Down Town" and "The Girl From Ipenema." She's the right Miss Wright.

Then when Walt and Warner get together with Verne Rowe for a bit of "group therapy" n o n s e n s e, they leave you on the floor, followed with Vern's version of Mario Lanza.

And when "Big Daddy Warner" cuts out with both the sax and the clarinet to blend in with the rest of the group for an impersonation of Glen Miller's swingin' years band doing "Elmer's Tune," they'll put you away.

Sad-faced Johnny "The Mark Of" Zorro is omnipresent throughout and including his own specialty bits with one of the most exciting guitarists we've yet heard, Allen "Swivel-hips" Presley Breneman, the perennial youth does a fantastic job with those drums, to say nothing of his part in the "mixed-up horn" bit with Walt and Warner.

Truly one of the most listenable as well as danceable groups you'll ever hear, The Wilder Brothers are booked into the Galley West Restaurant for your enjoyment through February 20 and are appearing nightly except Monday. Tuesday thru Thursday they'll open at 8:30 while Friday and Saturday they won't start 'til 9. On Sundays it's 7 p.m. Don't miss this wild bunch. They're great as always.

Apparently the customers at Swedish Corner are doing exactly what the publicity says they may do... eat as much as you like "cause when we dropped in there the other day... WOW! were the groceries being stowed away!

But they mean every word of it down there at 2501 Pacific Coast Highway in Torrance. (Right there in the shopping center near the Plaza Theatre. You can't miss it.) It's Swedish smorgasbord style dining and dinners go off at a buck eighty-four — lunches for one fourteen. Hot dishes, salads, desserts, the whole shot, and every bit is most tasty.

And now here's another good musical group playing nightly at the Plush Horse in Redondo Beach. It's the Jack Russell Trio who put out a wonderful mess of sounds down there for your dancing and listening pleasure nightly.

This versatile group of cats consists of pianoman Jack himself, an excellent vocalist, incidentally, Dean Daiziel on bass and guitar and Paul Seidel of Lima, Peru, on the drums. Actually you'd call this "a vocal group with its own accompaniment," and it's quality from the word go with a wonderful "big sound" coming from such a small group.

These guys are no charliecome-latelies to the show biz world, either, all three having a solid background in their chosen profession, having closed recently at the Kings

X and The Cathe here in L.A. and also a stint at Newport Beach.

The Jack Russell Trio will entertain at the Plush Horse Restaurant nightly, Tuesday through Saturday at this plush (all but the prices) Redondo Beach dine-outery, where the Lunch Buffet is the "in" thing from 11:30 'til 3 p.m. Monday thru Friday. Cost? Dollar eighty-five — that's what's cost!

This is a prime rib-steak-sea food house, by the way and quality throughout the ample menu. Stop in soon and get acquainted.

So how's this grab you! The Three Cheers are, in reality, four. Now how're we suppose to get around that! Don't let this misnomer hold you back from catching this exciting threesome-foursome, though. They'll open at the Barbary Coast this Friday — that's like the day after tomorrow — for this comedy-musical group.

There're no stars in this outfit, each doing his own part and doing it well, with Dino Pozobon who swings with the accordion, vibes and bass with equal dexterity.

Then there's Gus Voss, master of the banjo, the guitar and — get this — the trombone. See? When we say versatile we mean exactly that.

To further round out the versatility here, there's Don Cloe on bass and trumpet. And holding up the rhythm section of this bold group is Bill Bolie, (the fourth cheer) on drums. So let's look forward to catching this comedy-musical foursome starting Jan. 21.

Meanwhile, for tonite and tomorrow Gil and Nikki will be holding down the stand at the Mariner Hotel's Barbary

CRAZY MIXED-UP KIDS... Not so mixed up, however, when the music goes 'round and 'round and comes out — WHERE?! It's those swingin' Wilders again, currently playing at The Galley West in Marineland.

Coast Room in Lomita. See y'all there!

NOTES ABOUT NITE PEOPLE—Y'know, by the time the item hit print we discovered there'd been a change in entertainment at Bart Earle's Red Onion up on Peninsula Court. We mentioned the Hernandez Brothers but lo and behold, there's only one still there—

Vincente of the beautiful voice is the one remaining. He'll have no trouble picking up another partner, though, with his talent. So there'll still be entertainment in the Cantina Room Thursday, Friday and Saturday nites... In case some of you may have missed it, the attractive Michael's Restaurant over there on Artesia at Hawthorne in Redondo Beach near the Freeway is now under new management. The new boys are Jim Carlyle and Earl McDaniel. Still good food and still swing with the four til six cocktail hour.

Guess Al Smith decided to spend his time clipping coupons and basking in the sun. Like to join him... Fat Cat A WENT Went! Wha-a-a! But that's what the man said! It's a nice little spot over there at 1536 W. Carson in Torrance. (Oh come on! You get it! Pussy Cat 'a Go Go — Fat Cat A Went Went! Dig?)... What else can you say about a Pizza spot — except that you can wrap yourself around some of the finest pizza in town plus have a barrel of fun to boot with banjo players, etc. That's what you get when you visit the Pizza Palace. They've got two addresses in this area, y'know. One on Sepulveda in Torrance and the other on Crenshaw in Gardena... "Swang" by Mr. C's Chatterbox one nite last week and that ain't all you get in there... chat-chat! You also get dancing and entertainment, too, at the corner of E. 223 and Avalon in Torrance. Swingin' spot!... Offered to wrestle a little waitress the other nite at the Kyoto Sukiyaki Restaurant for our dinner. Meant it too... until she showed off her black belt. Woosh, that was close! Kyoto is on Western in Gardena... Tried that new "two luncheon Special" deal yet down at the Golden Hull. There's two specials daily and they go off at $1.95 each. Got a toadstix cocktail hour going down there, too. Half-a-buck for regulars. (that's regular drinks, y'ding-a-ling — not regular customers!)... By the time we got down to see Sam at his San Franciscan Restaurant on Sepulveda and Crenshaw last week and Big Sam found out the name of his new group, well, oops! We'd already gone to press with this stuff. However, THIS week we know, it's The Leewards, a swingin' little group. By the way, Sam puts but a swingin' plate of spaghetti down there, too. Try 'em!

Foods Class To Be Given In Gardena

A foods class in foreign and domestic cooking and home catering will be offered at the Gardena Adult School on Tuesday evenings, beginning Feb. 1, from 6:30 until 9:30.

Guest speakers will discuss preparation of food specialties and conduct demonstrations in the class. Interested persons may enroll at the adult school office, from 1 to 10 p.m. during weekdays. Further information is available by telephoning 323-2686.

Army Pfc. Quinton O. Mitchell, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Mitchell, 3813 W. 181st St., was assigned to the 1st Infantry Division in Viet Nam, Dec. 24.

Mitchell, last stationed at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex., is now a member of Company C in the division's 1st Battalion. He entered the Army in July 1965 and completed basic training at Ft. Ord.

A 1964 graduate of North High School, Mitchell attended El Camino College and worked for U. S. Royal Tires in Compton before entering the Army.

Boatswain's Mate I.C. William T. Harbison, USCG, son of Mrs. W. I. Fowler of 21331 Brighton Ave., spent Christmas in Viet Nam on duty with Coast Guard Squadron One.

He and other members of the Squadron shared their Christmas holiday with several hundred Vietnamese children by distributing gift packages prepared by Coast Guard wives in the San Francisco area. The youngsters are children of fishermen whose junks come under the constant watch of Squadron patrol boats.
