

Ned Jarrett Enters Race

Defending NASCAR Grand National Champion Ned Jarrett of Camden, S.C., has been added to the growing list of top ranking drivers entered in the Sunday's Motor Trend-Riverside 500 at Riverside International Raceway.

The 33-year old veteran, who won his title after the tightest points chase in Grand National history, will pilot a '66 Ford in the $76,000 classic, first race of the year for 1966 cars. This will be his fourth straight appearance at Riverside where he placed fifth and sixth in previous starts.

Seamanship Offered at Two Schools

Free courses in basic seamanship and boating safety will be offered to the public by the Redondo Beach Power Squadron, a unit of the United States Power Squadrons.

Classes will be held one night a week at Mira Costa High School, Manhattan Beach, starting Monday, Jan. 31 and at Malaga Cove Elementary School, Palos Verdes Estates, Wednesday, Feb. 2.

The classes begin at 7:30 p.m. and last for two hours. The entire course takes 13 weeks to complete.

Subjects include rules of the road, equipment, requirements, safety at sea, compass, aids to navigation, and other topics essential to making boating fun.

Further information may be obtained at the first meeting of the classes or by phoning FR 4-1564 or FR 3-8521.

Classes are open to both men and women, regardless of whether they own a boat.

The United States Power Squadrons, now in its 52nd year, is a non-profit national boating service organization dedicated to the teaching of safe boating.

North Torrance West League

North Torrance West Little League will hold registrations Saturday, Jan. 22 at McMasters Park, Artesia and Yukon, between 8 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Boys who will be 8 years old before Aug. 1 and who are not 13 prior to Aug. 1 are eligible.

President of the league is Beauford Montgomery. He said candidates must present proof of birth certificates and be accompanied by a parent.

Olga Connolly To Be Speaker

Olga Connolly, former Czechoslovakian Olympic discus thrower, will be speaker at the noon luncheon of the South Bay Athletic Club.

Olga, who left her home country to marry United States hammer throw champion Hal Connolly, will talk on the controversial A.A.U. track and field program.

The club is open to sports minded persons and the meetings are at the Plush Horse Restaurant, Redondo Beach, at 12:15 p.m. on Fridays.

Pepperdine Loses Twelve

The Pepperdine College Waves dropped two more basketball games the past weekend, lowering their league mark to 0-3 and their overall record to 1-12.

The Waves have lost all 12 games on the road.

later attempted to get back into the race but his car was too badly damaged.

Known as "Gentleman Ned" because of his mild manner, Jarrett is a two-time NASCAR Grand National Champion. He first won the coveted title in 1962, then repeated last year after a bitter point battle with runner-up Dick Hutcherson. Jarrett won more races (13) than any other driver on the circuit last year and his prize winnings of $77,966 were more than any other driver. His biggest victory of the '65 season came in a hard-fought race at Harlington, S.C., on Labor Day where he won the 14th annual Southern 500 for the first time.

In addition to Jarrett's entry, Raceway president Les Richter also announced receipt of an entry from Cale Yarborough of Timmonsville, S.C., one of NASCAR's newest and brightest young stars. Tenth in Grand National standings last year, the former football star and skydiver will drive a '66 Ford prepared by veteran Banjo Mathews of Charlotte, N.C. This will be Cale's first Riverside 500 appearance.

Activity over the Raceway's challenging 2.7-mile road course began yesterday. Time trials, to determine the 44-car starting field will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday with the 4th annual 500 scheduled to get underway at 11 a.m. Sunday.

THE MOTOR TREND-RIVERSIDE 500-MILE STOCK CAR RACE IS GROWING IN STATURE EVERY YEAR AND THIS YEAR'S 4 ANNUAL MEETING IS NO EXCEPTION—AS 44 OF THE GREATEST NAMES IN RACING GO AFTER THE $75,000 IN PRIZE MONEY JAN. 23-24 AT THE RIVERSIDE INTERNATIONAL RACEWAY.....

Jefferson High Scores 126

Basketball Church League

Led by defending champion Jefferson and undefeated Jordan, an eight-team field roars into the quarter-finals of the 19th annual Los Angeles City High School Basketball Championship Tournament Saturday afternoon at UCLA's plush Pauley Pavilion.

First game on Saturday's agenda gets under way at 3:30 when Western League champion University tackles Southern League runner-up Dorsey. Jefferson, Southern loop champs, faces West Valley League runner-up Granada Hills at 5 p.m.

East Valley League champion Monroe takes on West Valley winner Cleveland at 6:30 and Jordan's Marine loop titans bump into Western runners-up Hamilton at 8 p.m.

Survivors of the quarter-finals return to Pauley Pavilion for the semi-finals at 6 and 8 p.m. The championship game will be played next Wednesday evening at 8 p.m., preceded by a third-place decider at 6 p.m.

Jefferson's outstanding Democrats warmed up to the task of successfully defending their city title with a 126-80 victory over Huntington Park last Saturday in the first round.

Cochair Larry Hanson's Dazzling Demos, fresh from a city recordbreaking 115.3 points-per-game league season average, were responsible for three tournament records against H.P. — (1) most points by a single team (126); (2) most points, two teams (208); and (3) most points by a team in one quarter (44). Previous marks of 113, 178, and 40, respectively, were set in Jeff's 113-65 conquest of Gardena in '53.

Five league champs triumphed in the first round as Jordan subdued stubborn Grant, 72-59; Monroe outshot

Eagle Rock, 82-72; Cleveland polished off Banning, 79-50. The top scoring efforts of the first round included Sam Robinson (1964-65 All-City "Player of the Year"), Jefferson, 31 points; Bob Marshall, 30; Don Riggio, Eagle Rock, 27.
