Shrine President

Shriners Seat New President

Joe V. Record, a Lawndale carpet company owner, has been installed as president of the El Toga Shrine Club at a dinner-dance meeting of the club. Record succeeds Arthur "Bill" Golden of Gardena.

C. P. MacGregor, Imperial Marshall for the million-member Shrine of North America and past-Potentate of Los Angeles' Al Malakiah Temple, served as installing officer. Other new officers installed during the ceremonies include: William Gerber of Gardena, first vice president and continuing secretary; Dan E. Butcher of Rolling Hills, second vice president; Archie Watson of Torrance, third vice president, and Martin Hoover of Inglewood, treasurer.

Directors for the El Toga Shrine Club will be: Robert Firstman of Gardena, George Jones of Redondo Beach, Clyde Hutton of Palos Verdes, John Strickland of Gardena, Kenneth Smith of Tustin, Robert Faren of Torrance, William Rayls of Torrance, Dr. Norman Kobayashi of Gardena, and Douglas Cook of Torrance.

Chadwick Lectures Scheduled

Emery Walker, dean of admissions at Harvey Mudd, Pitzer, and Claremont Colleges, will open the annual Community Lecture Series at Chadwick School tonight.

Walker will discuss "Pressure on College Students" during a meeting in the Vandalia Auditorium on the Chadwick School campus in Rolling Hills Estates. The lecture will begin at 7:30 p.m. and there is no admission charge.

General theme of the Community Lecture Series is "Pressures in Education." Speakers will address themselves to the origin of the pressures, as well as to possible solutions.

Other speakers in the series of three lectures will include Fredrick Clark, headmaster of The Cate School in Carpinteria, Calif., who will discuss "Pressure and the Secondary School Student" on Feb. 9, and Dr. Fitzhugh Dodson, owner of the La-Primera Pre-School and the Children's Creativity Center in Waverly. He will speak Feb. 16 on the topic, "Pressures on the Younger Child."

Committee Re-elects Chairman

Wesley R. Brazier has been re-elected to a second term as Chairman of the Los Angeles County Probation Committee.

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, who appointed Brazier to the committee in 1962, said the chairman had spent "hundreds of hours of volunteer work helping young persons who have been in trouble."

The commission advises the county's Chief Probation Officer on rehabilitation programs so persons sentenced to juvenile hall, forestry camps, and other institutions may lead productive and law-abiding lives upon their release. Brazier was installed at a luncheon at Juvenile Hall.
