TOP FASHIONS IN BALL GOWNS

Fashion revue of new spring styles for the entire family, presented by the Bishop Montgomery Mothers Club, will be climaxed with a showing of new formal gowns and evening wraps. Preparing for the show, choosing the gowns they will model, are from left, Mrs. Lucas Akana, wearing a pink "great" coat over a matching sheath-like gown, meeting the approval of Mmes. Anthony R. Carbone, president; John F. McSweeney, on the decorating committee; and Jerome Kimmitt, ticket chairman. The show is set for Feb. 16 at the Los Verdes Country Club. (Press-Herald Photo)

AAUW Branch Presents

Fashion Benefit

"Fun and Fashions for Fellowships" is the theme for the Fashion Show-Luncheon at the Los Verdes Country Club at noon, Saturday, Feb. 12, presented by the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch of the American Association of University Women.

This festive occasion will raise money for women working on their doctoral degrees or dissertations, according to Mrs. Thomas Harding, Fellowship chairman, who is in charge of arrangements.

"Fifty American women and 41 from 25 other countries are studying under AAUW Fellowships this year, but since over 600 applications for aid were received, we had to disappoint many worthy women," said Mrs. Harding. Our national goal for 1966 is one half million for fellowships."

A fashion salon on Pacific Coast Hwy. will provide an array of new spring fashions including teenage and adult fashions from boudoir to cocktail costumes.

Jan Vall will serve as commentator and three graduates from her Studio of Charm will model, Wendy Bobrow, daughter of the founder of this AAUW branch, Ulla Nicollelo and Claudia Haskell; also, AAUW members, Mmes. Charles Bertolet, William Davidson, William Mason and Douglas Wood.

Models will display the new fashions in coiffures, which will be done by a Peninsula Center salon.

Mrs. Carl Lawrence is in charge of decorations, which will carry out the Valentine theme and Mrs. Harry Petersen will play during the show.

The public is invited and may secure tickets by calling Mrs. Ralph Hames, 5400 Calle de Arboles. Mrs. Joseph Jay is president of this 275 member group of college graduates, whose purpose is to encourage women to continue their higher education.

Women graduates interested in joining the AAUW may call Mrs. Dean Dunlavy, 3255 Parkhurst Dr., Rolling Hills.

DOLLARS FOR SCHOLARS

Fellowships for women working on their doctoral degrees is the goal of the Fashion Luncheon planned by the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch of the American Association of University Women for Feb. 12 at Los Verdes Country Club. Mmes. Thomas Harding, show chairman, and Mrs. Joseph Jay, branch president, check out show plans while Mrs. Selbert Chernila, on Fellowship committee, retrieves a mock diploma, to be used as decorations, from her 20-month-old daughter, Renee, explaining she's much too young. Mrs. Ralph Hames, 5400 Calle de Arboles, Torrance, may be called for tickets.

Honored at Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Slover, 1712 Martina Ave., were guests of honor at a reception on Jan. 15 held at the Torrance YWCA on Carson St. in celebration of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

The party was given by the Slovers' three children, their husbands and wives, Mrs. Clifford Graham and Mr. Graham of Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Slover, Redondo; and Cmdr. and Mrs. Jay Alden Slover of Washington D. C.

Also on hand to add to the happiness of the occasion were the honored couple's six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

The anniversary celebrants have lived in Torrance since 1932, coming here with their three teenage children from the Chicago, Ill. area. They were married in Jacksonville, Ill., on Jan. 18, 1916. The Slover children are all graduates of Torrance High School. Mr. Slover retired from Pacific Electric in 1954.

For the Golden celebration, the refreshment table was covered with a white and gold cloth and centered by a huge arrangement of white and gold chrysanthemums. The tiered anniversary cake was also decorated in white and gold and was served with punch.

Approximately 75 relatives and friends called to congratulate the couple. Guests were from San Diego, Anaheim, North Hollywood, Los Angeles and Torrance.

Mr. and Mrs. Slover received many gifts including a money tree.

Spring Garden Setting for

Mothers Club Style Show

Azaleas, in brilliant magenta and pink blossoms, will transform the dining room at the Los Verdes Country Club into a spring garden for the second annual Bishop Montgomery Mothers Club Fashion Show on Feb. 16. Theme for the evening affair is "Tee Off to Spring."

Mrs. Frederick Brierley and Mrs. John Howard, chairman and co-chairman of this affair, have invited both men and women, and they have planned the evening accordingly. Fashions will be provided by two Del Amo Center shops. A beauty salon in Torrance has agreed to style the models' hair.

Mrs. Nadine Correll has accepted the role of commentator, and the fashions will be modeled by members of the Mothers Club, Bishop Montgomery co-eds, and professional men and women.

A social hour at 7 p.m. will begin the evening. A buffet supper will be served at 8 p.m. Tickets have been mailed to all parents of Bishop Montgomery students, however additional tickets may be obtained from the school office.

Some outstanding door prizes have been obtained by Mrs. Harry Redgriff, including two nights and three days at the Hacienda Hotel in Las Vegas, and two nights and three days at the Erwan Gardens Hotel in Palm Desert.

The fashion show is the most important fund-raising event of the Mothers Club and the proceeds have been designated for the purchase of new books for the school library.

Chairmen for this project include Mmes. Jerome Kimmitt, tickets; Cletus Oster, patrons; Peter Dragich and W. F. Croak, advertising; John McSweeney and Herbert Gulick, decorations; John Bauman, table favors; Harry Redgriff, door prizes; Allan Harkins, hostesses; Robert Lauterjung, prizes; and Lucas Akana, publicity.
