PARKWAY
Parkway PTA executive board met on Feb. 10 at the home of Mrs. Serge Freeman on Via Anita. Discussion of the Feb. 17 PTA meeting to take place in the school cafeteria at 7:30 centered on guest speaker Joe Wilcox of the Torrance YMCA and his titled speech "It's a Man's World." The pledge of allegiance to the flag will be offered by the Gray Y Seahawks led by Marshall Stewart.

PERRY
Perry will present the "Greatest Show on Earth" on Feb. 17 in the school cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. The celebration of Perry School PTA's 20th birthday and the Founders' Day program as well as presentation of Honorary Life Membership awards will be depicted in a special presentation tabloid-style by the Perry Place Players and a chorus of many school children. A unique display of nostalgic photographs, attendance records and year books, as well as other mementos dating from 1908' till 1966 is prepared. In 1913 there were 32 students and two teachers at Perry School. The association meeting is the first of a two-day fete with a Mardi Gras on Friday, Feb. 18, from 5 to 9 p.m. There will be a costume party at the second night event and games, food and sweets booths and a tiny tot room as well as a country store.

RIVIERA
"Roses and Lollipops" will be the theme of a fashion show luncheon at Riviera PTA Feb. 17 meeting. Past presidents and former recipients of the Honorary Life Membership award as well as former principals will be honored guests of the association at a 1:30 p.m. luncheon served in the school cafeteria. Following this, 8th grade girls will model the outfits they made in the home economics classes. Founders' Day chairman, Mrs. Frank Vyzralek, and her committee will present this year's HLM to a worthy member.

Announce Homemaker Winners

Winners in the 1966 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow awards in Torrance high schools have been announced this week. They are Linda M. Hamerle, Bishop Montgomery; Candis L. Jones, Carson; Marie Stansbury, North; Sandra L. Osborne, South; Janet Lemen, Torrance; and Cheryl R. Ward, West. Each scored highest in her school in a written knowledge and attitude examination administered to more than half million senior girls throughout the country on Dec. 7. She remains in contention for scholarship grants ranging from $500 to $5,000. Test paper of all school Homemakers of Tomorrow in the state are being judged and from them the State Homemaker of Tomorrow will be chosen. She will receive a $1,500 scholarship from General Mills, Inc., sponsor of the annual Betty Crocker search. Her school will be awarded a set of Encyclopaedia Britannica. The second-ranking girl in the state will receive a $500 education grant.

Enrolls at Marymount

Jeanne Ann Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Weaver of Torrance, has enrolled as a member of the freshman class at Marymount College. A graduate of Bishop Montgomery High School,

Dianas Attend Area Conference

Redondo Beach Dianas Junior Women's Club of Redondo Beach was represented at Area "C" Conference of the California Federation of Women's Clubs in Anaheim by Mrs. Eric Lindgren, president. Also attending were: Bruce Wilkinson, Americanism chairman; Peter Kiefer, youth chairman; Lee Hausman, press chairman; Sam Costanza, health chairman; and Miss Sara Mitchell, first vice president.

Association Seats Board

A new Board of Trustees, comprised of 12 members, was installed at the January meeting of the Southwest Association for Retarded Children. The meeting was held at Columbia School in Torrance.

Incoming president, Alfred Schild of Torrance said, "We anticipate this to be a year of progress and change in our association with new members serving in new capacities."

The other five newly-elected officers are Mrs. William Loomis, recording secretary; Mrs. John Casey, treasurer; both of Torrance; Mrs. Leonard Pulver of Redondo Beach, corresponding secretary; Charles Spiegel of Torrance, first vice president; and John V. Karsk of Manhattan Beach, second vice president.

According to the newly-revised by-laws of the Association there are six directors completing the Board of Directors. They are William Loomis, chairman; William Paul, Harry Raech, Mrs. Dean Thurman, and Lester Foster, all of Torrance, and Harold Ritz of Manhattan Beach.

Richard Collins of Palos Verdes, attorney and legal advisor for the association, was installing officer for the evening. He pointed out the progress that had been made in the past two years through the determination and dedication of the SARC members.
