Catholic Daughter Court

Reception for Members

At a formal reception held recently in the Nativity Parish Annex, Court St. Catherine 1378, Catholic Daughters of America, welcomed eight new members. Mrs. Charles Butterfield, grand regent, presided with Mrs. Paul Rafter, district deputy assisting.

New members greeted were Mmes. Michael Flaherty, Donald Rainville, Jerry Hinkey, Dwight Buhman, Lawrence Kuhn, Roger Dixon, Francis Welsh and Alfred Cicconi.

Responsible for applications of the new members was Mrs. John McVey, chairman of extension.

Officers of the court, in long white formal, presented an impressive candle-light ceremony telling the aim and purpose of Catholic Daughters.

Mrs. Gordon Hicks, lecturer, gave the spiritual message followed by a talk on patriotism by Mrs. Michael Blasco, court monitor.

The color guard, Mmes. Laurene Derouin, J. W. Crew and Robert Agular led the pledge to the Cross, flag salute and national anthem.

The Grand Regent presented each new member with a cross and crown lapel pin, insignia of the order.

Refreshments were served from a table centered by Madonna encircled by lavender and gold flowers.

Special guests included Rev. William O'Toole, court chaplain; Mmes. Gust Sundquist, archdiocese chairman of legislation; Helen Hildebrand, Long Beach; L. Forrest Emerson, Compton; Charles Buckley, Redondo; Milton Sahner, Huntington Beach; Ted Juron, Los Angeles; John Hager, Hawthorne; Arthur Man, Palos Verdes, and Miss Jane Kilcoyne, Los Angeles, all visiting Grand Regents.

Mrs. Harry Hamilton was musician and Mrs. Paul Labonowski was in charge of the guest book.

Hostesses for the formal affair were Mmes. Robert Lewellen and William Healy, co-chairmen, assisted by Mmes. Frank Forester, Robert Larmon, Julius Kozial, Alphonse Phillips, Lloyd Landerville, George Probert, Stephen Tegias, Miles O'Dowd, John McDonald, Peter O'Brien and Rudolph Peters.

Job's Daughters Fill Calendar With Events

As their special event for the month, Torrance Bethel Job's Daughters went in a group to Hollywood Saturday to attend "Sound of Music" after which they went to the Farmer's Market for dinner.

The local Bethel met with four other Bethels, San Pedro, Wilmington, El Segundo and Manhattan Beach on Feb. 18 to put on their work for the Grand Bethel Guardian, Mrs. Gladys Gillette and Grand Bethel Associate Guardian David Brown. Honored Queens presiding were Robin Bingham, Linda Provence, Sandy Messer, Sherri Shoemaker and Janis Adams. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

On Feb. 17, Torrance Job's Daughters put on their work for the Torrance Order of Eastern Star.

With Mrs. Carolyn Petersen, Bethel guardian, and Charles Moore, associate guardian, in attendance, the local girls initiated three new members at their Feb. 15 meeting.

Job's Daughters held their bi-annual bake sale on Feb. 5, proceeds from which will go to purchase equipment for children with aphasia, resulting from brain damage, causing some children to acquire language slowly, inadequately and sometimes not at all.

After the Feb. 1 meeting, presided over by Honored Queen Robin Bingham, the girls drew names for their secret dads.

Madrecitas Will Hear Guest Speaker

"Who is Responsible" is the topic of the speech to be delivered by Richard Waldzunas at the meeting of Las Madrecitas tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Bruce Donley, 433 Los Miradores, Redondo.

In his talk, the speaker will probe the reasons for the rising of juvenile delinquency and explore the avenues where the responsibility rests. Mr. Waldzunas has long been active in civic affairs especially with youth groups, including 25 years with the Boy Scouts of America.
