

CALLING ALL VOLUNTEERS . . . Mrs. Gordon Phillips, Central Torrance chairman for the annual Cancer Crusade, recruits Mrs. John Overstreet for the April drive. Mrs. Overstreet will serve as section chairman. Persons wishing to help may call 370-5684 for information. The drive will be conducted throughout April.

Volunteers Needed for Annual Cancer Crusade

"We need door-bell ringers," Mrs. Gordon C. Phillips, residential chairman for the American Cancer Society's April Crusade in Central Torrance, said today as she announced plans for the drive. "The fight against cancer is being carried on around the world by people who are neighbors," she explained. "Each of us helps to save a life in our important part of the world, whether it is in the community, neighborhood, block, or individual family."

Volunteers are needed throughout Torrance to ring door bells and tell the story of the fight against cancer, she said. Persons interested in joining the local crusade may call 370-5684 or visit the American Cancer Society office at 16503 S. Hawthorne Blvd., Lawndale.

The swallows have returned to Capistrano and spring has come to Torrance High School. Every morning in room 122, Mrs. Elaine Koss, the senior English teacher, and puts a number on the bulletin board. Today the number is 49. That number, however, means a great deal to all of her senior students. It represents the number of days left until the final exam is over in her class.

Girls' League has staged its annual Recognition Day. Judi Ryhart, ASB president, was voted Girl of the Year; which she very much deserved. She also was Miss Politician. Miss Friendship, a girl who can be confided in easily, and a well-received companion is our foreign exchange student, Ana Marie Bezerra. One who is lovely, whose sweetness is contagious, and whose warmth puts people at their ease is Cheryl Barnett, Miss Personality.

THE GIRL who is a joiner as well as a doer, who is always there in time of need to render assistance and diligently gives of herself is Julia Takayama, voted Miss Service. A writer of creative thought who contributes in a literary way and whose works are enjoyed by those who read them is Ginny Lahey, voted Miss Journalism. Miss Thespians, who has gifted abilities in the fields of writing, directing and acting, is Maureen Rose. Miss Comedian, who should be full of wit, humor, loveliness, and personal radiance is Sharon Gunter. One who is well along the road to mastering the use of an instrument is Helen Smoot, voted Miss Music. Miss Art, skillful in expressing her own imagination and uses this ability to the benefit and enjoyment of her peers, is Cheryl Steineman. Miss Fashion, who wears colorful and becoming apparel and knows how to have a pleasing appearance at all times, is Kathy Corsetion.

New VFW Post Set For Area

A new post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars is to be organized in North Torrance, according to Alva J. Fleming, National extension service assistant director for the VFW.

Prospective charter members of the new post should call Jess Gipson at 371-4385 or George Bannerhaver at 326-4844 for information, Fleming said.

The VFW, with a membership of 1.3 million, is the oldest of all major veterans organizations in the nation.

"The need for more VFW posts is firmly established by the service which they can, and do, render to a community," Fleming said. "The fact that we were organized to serve the veteran, his widow and orphan, means that we must have VFW posts in every city and town where veterans live."

SOLUTION

Our Miss Brooks and Mr. Novak are two teachers who are best liked by their students. Miss Janet Orr, physical education teacher, was voted "Our Miss Brooks," while James Stannard, senior government teacher, was selected as "Mr. Novak." The secretary who is efficient in performing her duties, but can also take time out to help students is Mrs. Phyllis Henderson. Congratulations to all these deserving winners.
