Members and friends of the South Bay Hospital Auxiliary are circling April 28 on their calendars as the day when they will attend the Auxiliary's annual fashion luncheon.

"Spring a la Mode" is the theme of the event, which will take place in the Regency Room of the Airport Marina, beginning with a social hour at 11 o'clock.

Luncheon, to be served at noon, will be followed by a parade of spring and summer fashions provided by a Palos Verdes salon.

Proceeds from the social event will be used for nursing scholarships offered to El Camino College students seeking a career in nursing.

Mrs. Wilbur Seaton and Mrs. C. R. Walker are serving as co-chairmen. They are being assisted by Mmes. Seymour Zimmerman, Frank Diederichs, Dominic Campolo, Gayle Martin, Robert Karikofe, Louis Muslin, Paul McGrath, John Fraser, Charles Myers, S. Edmund Taylor, Richard Nielson and Robert M. Deane.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. S. E. Taylor, 1540 Monte d'Oro, Hollywood Riviera.

FOR THE SICK IN THE WORLD

Grooming kits by the dozen have been assembled by the Redondo Beach Dianas to be sent to the Hospital Ship SS Hope, which visits the ports of the world to administer to the sick. The Dianas have also made stuffed animals to be sent along with the kits for the children. Busy completing the project are, from left, Mmes. Philip MacBride, health chairman; Al Rolstead and Earl Duke. The SS Hope is presently in Nicaragua. (Press-Herald Photo)

Grooming Kits and Toys

Dianas Aid Hope Project

Redondo Beach Dianas, California Federated Women's Club, Marina District, junior membership, has joined with the General Federation of Women's Clubs in an effort to assist Project Hope, Health Opportunity for People Everywhere.

Project Hope is the principal activity of the People-to-People Health Foundation, an independent, non-profit corporation formed by the American people for the purpose of carrying out a program of cooperation in the field of health between people in the United States and those in developing nations of the world.

Mrs. Philip MacBride, International Affairs chairman for the Dianas, reports that the club has been assembling grooming kits, consisting of a wash cloth, comb, toothbrush and toothpaste, small plastic toy and soap.

These grooming kits are given to the patients of the Hospital Ship SS Hope. An additional gift of a stuffed animal is given to the children. The Dianas have cut, sewed and stuffed dozens of these animals.

The club will be sending these items to the Hospital Ship Hope, which is located in Nicaragua at the present time.

Couple Honored

At Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Pyeatte, 1624 W. 255th St., Harbor City, who were celebrating their Silver Wedding Anniversary on April 4, were honored at an Open House last Sunday afternoon in Stanton.

The reception was given by the couple's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jay Farrell of Stanton, and their son, Charles Franklin Pyeatte of Harbor City.

Relatives and long-time friends of the couple called during the afternoon to congratulate the celebrants.

Refreshments were served from a tea table effectively decorated in the silver anniversary motif. Assisting at the table were Mmes. Earl Pyeatte, Preston Pyeatte and Eugene Pyeatte, all of Fullerton, and Mrs. Jarrell Reid of Lomita.

The couple, whose romance began while they were students at the University of Southern California, have been residents of Harbor City for the past 20 years. They are members of the Wayside Methodist Church.

Mr. Pyeatte is an engineer at the Long Beach Naval Shipyard. He has been employed by the Navy for 26 years.

For Philanthropies

Organizations Plan Bullock's Opening

Palos Verdes Peppers Auxiliary is one of five area philanthropic organizations which will participate in the preview opening of the new Bullock's Del Amo, presently under construction, with the opening set for September of this year.

The five organizations, who will sponsor the Preview Opening Benefit, will share in the proceeds from the event and will use the funds for local philanthropies.

At a luncheon at the home of Mrs. John Thomas, 2529 Via Carrillo, Palos Verdes Estates, on March 30, plans were made for the Peppers Auxiliary's participation.

Proceeds from reservations made through a Palos Verdes Peppers member will be given to the Children's Home Society of California to help children without families to find a happy, normal home.

Mrs. Lloyd Armstrong, president, appointed Mrs. John Thomas, Palos Verdes Estates, chairman of Bullock's Grand Opening. Mrs. Robert Tabing of Rolling Hills Estates will serve as co-chairman. Mrs. Dan Knott, Palos Verdes Estates, is in charge of reservations and Mrs. Thomas E. Watson, Palos Verdes Peninsula, is handling publicity.
