Speaker to Draw Parallels In Hebrew, Christian Faith

Guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Beth Sar Shalom Fellowship Thursday will be the Rev. Dr. Walter J. Atkinson of Seattle who will discuss the relationship of Jesus Christ to the Jews.

Dr. Atkinson, who was born and reared in an orthodox Jewish home and later converted to Christianity, will "demonstrate how the Christian ordinance of Holy Communion arose directly from the Jewish feast of the passover."

DR. WALTER ATKINSON
Hebrew Christian

"Because he is a Hebrew Christian with a unique personal background, his controversial and timely theme will be of interest to both Christian and Jew in the Los Angeles area," said the Rev. Martin Rosen, resident minister of the sponsoring Beth Sar Shalom Fellowship of Hollywood.

The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Charness of 4926 Laurette St.

FAIL-SAFE LIGHTING

Many industrial plants use rechargeable nickel-cadmium batteries to supply emergency lighting. Should a power failure occur, the batteries automatically cut in to provide power for emergency lights.

COMPLETE COURSE . . . Five employes in the city's engineering department have just completed an in-service training course sponsored by the American Public Works Association and received certificates during ceremonies at Tuesday's meeting of the City Council. City Manager Edward J. Ferraro (far right) presented certificates to, from left, Glenn Weaver, John Semperi, Eugene Bourbonnais, Walter Nollac, and Robert DePrez. Nollac is city engineer and street superintendent.
