University Women Will Hear Rabbi

Rabbi Leonard Helman of Temple Beth-El, San Pedro, will be the speaker at the general meeting of the South Bay University Women at the Torrance home of Mrs. W. R. Hughes, Jr., 24235 Falena Ave. on the evening of Jan. 27. His subject will be "The Historical Relationships of Judaism and Christianity."

Rabbi Helman, who began his work in San Pedro in 1959, was educated at the Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati. He taught for a time at the College of Jewish Study in Los Angeles and now in addition to his work in San Pedro he acts as chaplain at the Veterans Hospital in Long Beach.

Rabbi Helman will be introduced as speaker promptly at 8:15 by Mrs. Robert Sussman, program chairman. Refreshments and the monthly business meeting are slated to follow the speaker.

Interested guests are welcomed to this meeting.

Iversons Hosts

Recent birthday celebrants at the Pen & Quill hotel-restaurant in Manhattan Beach were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Iverson of Torrance, who entertained a table of South Bay friends with a dinner party on the occasion of Mrs. Iverson's natal anniversary.

BOOK SALE BENEFIT . . . Members of the Torrance Chapter, City of Hope, will stage a mammoth book sale next Saturday from 10 a.m. until four p.m. at stalls set up in front of the Magic Chef market. Proceeds from the book sale will go to the chapter's fund to be donated to the Pilot Medical Center at Duarte. In preparation for the sale are, from left, Mmes. Sylvia Braithberg, reading one of sale books; Sam Maiten, Harry Mandell, Jerome Scharfman, chapter president, John Arensmeyer and Frank Sciarrotta. The public is invited to attend the sale.
