Counselor To Appear In Series

Dr. David H. Dingilian, a counselor at Harbor College, will appear every Tuesday from 6:30 to 7 p.m. for 20 weeks on Channel 28 beginning Feb. 16. Titles in his lecture series include "Patterns for the Journey of Life," "The Behavioral Sciences and the Scientific Method," "The Roles of Sex in Human Relations," "Your Feelings and Emotions," "The Three Basic Facets of the Personality," and "Faith, Reason and the Good Life."

Gem Society Sets Meeting Next Tuesday

Guest speaker at the South Bay Lapidary and Mineral Society meeting Tuesday will be Miss Mae Sharp. A long time "rock hound" and former Powder Puff derby entrant, Miss Sharp will highlight her lecture on Alaskan jade with slides and gem specimens. There will be no admission charge and guests are welcome at the 7:30 p.m. meeting to be held in Clark Stadium, 861 Valley Drive, Hermosa Beach.

'Big Brother, Sister' Work Needs Helpers

Persons who would like to volunteer to serve in the capacity of "big brother" or "big sister" are being sought by the Volunteer Bureau 1427 S. Pacific Ave., San Pedro. The bureau, which deals with all types of volunteer placement in the community, has issued an appeal also for remedial reading teachers and general office workers. Further information is available by contacting Mrs. Clarice Turner, TE 3-5227, Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings until noon.

Veneral Disease Is Topic

Veneral disease among teenagers will be discussed by the Los Angeles County Trustees Association at a meeting tomorrow evening. The session will be held at South High School, beginning at 6:30. Members of the Torrance Board of Education will host the quarterly meeting. Dr. W. A. Ketterer, chief of the bureau of communicable diseases of the California Department of Health, and Dr. Frank S. Stafford, senior health officer in charge of education for the County Health Department, will present the program. Charles Pranian, vice president of the group, is program chairman.

Kiwanis Week Set in Lomita

Lomita will observe Kiwanis Week beginning Monday, according to a proclamation issued by Mayor Joe A. Haslam. Haslam said the Kiwanis clubs have "made outstanding contributions to our community and country" in proclaiming the week. He noted that Kiwanis International observes its 50th anniversary this month.
