

CHEERLEADERS . . . Four cheerleaders have been selected at Bishop Montgomery High School to provide the vocal support for girls participating in the events sponsored by the Girls Athletic Association. They are (top row) Pat Parvis and Nikki Brajevic and (bottom row) Mary Baird and Anne Shelly.

Montgomery Cheerleaders Stay Busy Most of the Time

Four cheerleaders at Bishop Montgomery High School, as a member of the Pep Club, have been selected to lead spirit activities of the Girls Athletic Association. Seniors Pat Parvis and Anne Shelly, and juniors Mary Baird and Nikki Brajevic also are involved in other extracurricular activities.

Pat, the head cheerleader, also serves as activities chairman for Excalibur, a member of the make-up committee for the Drama Club, and Anne participates in Glee Club and Pep Club, and likes to play tennis and ride horseback. She plans to major in language in college and wants to become an airline hostess.

Sharing the enthusiasm for horseback riding, Mary also has made plans for the future. She hopes to become a legal secretary and is now taking a business course.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE . . . Officers of the South Bay Community Concert Assn. discuss plans for the upcoming membership campaign. Heading the drive are, from left, Mrs. E. A. French, area chairman of Manhattan Beach; Mrs. Roland Pantions, Hermosa Beach area chairman; and Mrs. Allen Hofferber, membership drive chairman.
