Heart Fund Seeks Help Of Leaders

"We need the aid of local merchants and businessmen in winning the battle against heart and circulatory disorders," stated Bruce Asiwil, business chairman for the Southwestern Branch of the Los Angeles Heart Assn. He explained that during the "business neighbor visits" to be conducted Feb. 8 to 12, life-saving leaflets explaining what to do in case of a heart attack will be distributed. The booklets will include tips on how to guard against the menace, also. Ashwill, of New York Life Insurance Co., 4825 Torrance Blvd., concluded. Funds collected during the heart drive will be channeled into research to prevent heart disorders and provide rehabilitation training for those who have been victimized. "Our hope is to give every businessman in the area an opportunity to support the Heart Fund." Businessmen ready to work with the local branch of the association may contact Ashwill at 370-3606.

El Camino To Workout For Tennis

Tennis practice begins at El Camino College next week. The Warrior netters' opening match is with Mt. San Antonio College in the Camcino courts Feb. 19. Bob Benson and Irwin Biedstein, both of Inglewood, who helped last year's team to a 23-1 record in dual competition, are the only returnees for Coach Paul Manahan. Benson was No. 6 man in singles during the season, and Biedstein was No. 3 in doubles. The Warriors' only '64 loss came at the hands of California State College at Los Angeles in a practice match. In addition to winning the Metro dual championship, the Warriors secured the Metro Tournament, Ojai Tournament and the Southern California Tournament.
