DIPLOMA IN JUNE

Richard Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis W. Smith of 905 Sartori Ave., will be among more than 700 students receiving degrees at New Mexico State University's annual commencement June 5. He completed his studies at New Mexico State during the semester ending in January and will be awarded a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering.

Times, will meet Thursday evening at 7:30 in the Hermosa Beach Biltmore to hear the Rev. William A. Hulet.

The committee has drawn plans to publish a weekly, non-sectarian, professional, evangelical newspaper that "will prove to be the greatest factor in creating a 'World Revival,'" according to a committee spokesman.

"Time was never so precious as now. If we are to evangelize the world in our generation, we must do it quickly and use every possible method to reach every person with the 'Good News' of God's love and provision of a heavenly home," he said.

Persons interested in the project are being invited to attend Thursday night's meeting in Hermosa Beach to hear the inspirational message of the Rev. Mr. Hulet.

New Rescue Unit Placed In Service

A new rescue unit has been placed in service at the Carson County Fire Station, 404 E. Carson St.

The new unit replaces one which has served the Carson area for more than 10 years, according to Fire Chief Keith Klinger.

Citizens of the area have been invited to visit the station and inspect the new unit.

Spirituality Can Satisfy Man's Needs

It takes a mental breakthrough to begin finding the spiritual truth about God and man, according to a Christian Science lecturer who spoke here Saturday. Nothing else can satisfy "the basic spiritual needs of mankind," he said.

Howard H. Irwin of San Bernardino was the speaker. "Salvation is a continuing process," he told an audience in First Church of Christ Scientist, 218th Street. It requires the individual to challenge and overcome the "resistance of materialism."

Irwin was introduced to the audience by Mrs. Betty Eardley, Second Reader.

The lecturer declared that "human thought too often is either unwilling or incapable of grasping things outside its own experience."

"This tendency accounts for mankind's slowness in getting into space," he said. "The laws or forces that make it possible to explore outer space have always been available, but they could be grasped and used only as the human mind was led out of its bondage," he said.

"This same reluctance of the human mind to think of anything unlike itself also explains the delay mankind has shown in the full acceptance and practice of the Christianity of Christ Jesus," Mr. Irwin declared.

Church Plans Youth Accent Programs

The "Accent on Youth" program at the Del Amo Southern Baptist Church, 3915 W. 228th St., will include a dinner-party Friday night at the farmhouse in Anaheim and a Valentine social Sunday following the 7 p.m. worship service.

The Rev. Daniel B. Beaver, Jr., pastor, will deliver the third in a series of messages to the young people at the evening service titled "You Are Only Young Once."

Other services at the church will follow the regular schedule with Sunday school at 9:45 a.m., worship service at 11 a.m., and training union at 6 p.m.

$16 MILLION CONTRACT

A follow-on contract totaling $16 million has been awarded The Garrett Corporation's AirResearch Manufacturing Division, Los Angeles, by McDonnell Aircraft Corp., St. Louis. The contract is for continued production of environmental and central air data systems plus emergency ram air turbine and cabin pressurization systems for varied aircraft.

COURT OF HONOR . . . Charles Wells, from left, and Steve Lange, of St. Catherine's boy Scout Troop 785, were elevated to Eagle rank in an award ceremony. Charles and Steve have both served as past senior patrol leaders. Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wells and Steve the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lange.

Slate Lenten Series For Waleria Church

A series of Friday evening worship services during Lent at the Waleria Community Methodist Church, 3646 Newton St., will feature six guest ministers speaking on the theme, "What Would Christ Say Now?" The series will begin Friday, March 5, and continue through April 9.

The speakers (in order) will be the Rev. Robert Kestler, pastor of the Holliston Avenue Methodist Church of Pasadena; the Rev. Donald Locher, pastor of the Los Altos Methodist Church of Long Beach; the Rev. Donald Cooke, pastor of the North Long Beach Methodist Church of Alhambra.

Special music will be provided for the interest and enjoyment throughout the series, according to the Rev. Frank E. Knouse, pastor of the Waleria church.

Services of Holy Week will conclude the Lenten Season with Palm Sunday services on April 11, Maundy Thursday evening communion service on April 15, and Easter Sunday services on April 18.
