The Scholarship, named in honor of Eva M. Murdoch, wife of the first president of El Camino College, is presented annually by the Faculty Wives to deserving graduate students planning to continue an education in a four-year institution toward a career in teaching.

These scholarships have been offered since 1958 and continue to constitute a major objective of the Faculty Wives.

Last year, James T. Miller and Jacqueline Leneker, now attending Long Beach and San Jose State Colleges, respectively, were recipients of the awards. An additional scholarship of $100 was presented to Dennis Puckett.

Scholarship selections are based upon worthiness, academic attainment and financial need of the candidate.

Refreshments and door prizes will be added features of the show.

Mrs. Robert L. Callahan of Long Beach will be pianist.

A limited number of tickets are available at the student store.

Additional tickets may be obtained from Meses Frank Jorgenson, and Edwin Pinkston, or other members of the Scholarship Committee.
