

Former Pastor Returns To Waleria Assembly

The Rev. and Mrs. Oscar D. Butterfield, missionaries to Alaska for the Assemblies of God, will speak today at the Waleria Assembly of God. Services will be held at 7 p.m. at the church, according to Rev. Edward L. Hughes, pastor.

The Rev. Butterfield is a former minister at the Waleria Church and a former city employee. He and Mrs. Butterfield have been serving in Alaska since 1957. Since 1962, Rev. Butterfield has been pastor of the Fairbanks Assembly of God. Their work includes the church and missionary trips to minister to Eskimos and Indians in the area and the U.S. Armed Forces church at Ft. Wainwright.

REV. MRS. BUTTERFIELD Will Speak Today

Coeds to Join March For Heart

Everyone in the area — from community leaders to college students — work for Heart. One group in the Torrance and Southwest area ready to contribute to the annual Heart Sunday campaign today, are members of Lambda Phi Sigma, an off-campus sorority at El Camino Junior College.

The coeds, all of Omicron chapter of the El Camino College sorority, are making plans to act as an emergency crew for the Torrance Heart Sunday drive. They will cover areas in northern Torrance which haven't been assigned to Heart Sunday volunteers. Besides aiding in the campaign, "to help defeat the nation's number one health menace — heart and circulatory disorders," the girls, throughout the year, work on various community projects.

THOSE INCLUDED in the Heart Sunday "emergency" drive are Sharon Burt, Linda Casala, Erin Davidson, Jan DeMott, Cynthia Homeyer, Judy Graham, and Mary Kennedy.

Other Lambda Phi Sigma Heart volunteers are Helen Kiyehara, Kathy Travis, Vicky Palfreyman, Rosemary Weller, Tina Thomas, Dianne Ables, Joyce Schu, Pauline Blackburn, Dianne Green, Marge Lockett, and Georgia Wimbeary.

Rev. Butterfield first came to Torrance in 1925. He was employed by the city as an electrical inspector from 1931 to 1943 and served as the first inspector. He and three other Waleria families organized the Waleria church, known then as the Non-Denominational Community Church. The church was organized as the Assembly of God in 1933 and Rev. Butterfield served as its third pastor.

Three sons are living in Southern California. Oscar Delmer Butterfield and his family reside in Torrance. He has been employed by the National Supply Division of Armco Steel Corp. since 1941.

Fred Butterfield and his family are residents of Downey. Fred is manager of the Minor Chain and Gear Co. in Gardena.

The third son, Ben B. Butterfield, and his family reside in Paramount. Ben manages the Sav-on store in Gardena.

Both Rev. and Mrs. Butterfield will speak at this evening's service. The public has been invited to attend. The church is located at 24416 Hawthorne Ave.

Tartar Business Students To Attend Annual Meeting

Four Torrance High business students and their teacher will participate in the eighth annual Student-Business Conference Tuesday in Pasadena.

Students who will represent Torrance High are Karen Johnson, Cheryl Northington, Yolinda Solis, and Colette Eisele. Mrs. Kay Carson will accompany the group.

More than 700 students and 100 teachers will attend the meeting, being sponsored by the Sears-Roebuck Foundation. Outstanding senior business students are selected to participate.

Lyle R. Albro, consultant in business and distributive education for the Los Angeles County Schools and a former work experience coordinator in the Torrance schools, is coordinator for the meeting. Dolores W. Stevens, business department chairman at Rosemead High School is chairman.

Goals of the meeting are to assist students in selecting a career, to help them to understand the basic operations of American business, and to see demonstrations of new business machines.
