

Tartar Teen Talk

By Robin Bingham

The doors of Torrance High were open wide last night to welcome parents to the annual PTA Open House. Teachers were in their classrooms to confer with parents. Work done by various students was displayed.

Tom Kuck, professional folk singer, entertained the Torrance High faculty and students after school Feb. 25, at the Folk Song Club meeting. He demonstrated the techniques of guitar playing.

Mr. Kuck has performed at the Steve Allen Playhouse, on the Panorama Pacific Red Row Show, and at the Ports O' Call and the Troubadour. The Folk Song Club plans to have many demonstrations by off-campus artists.

After defeating St. Monica's "Mariners" on Feb. 26 in the first game of the CIF preliminaries, the Tartar Five met Lowell High School last night. (See today's Press-Herald sports page for results).

"JUVIE" is by Kathy McDonald. The cast includes Lucille Grooms, Lynn Baren, Duane Lyons and Bob Miller. In this drama a serious view is given of juvenile delinquency.

"Sector 1508" written by Richard Tierman is a science fiction with the theme being the individual against a system, Maureen Rose, Keith Benton, and Jack Rose are included in the cast.

The public is invited. See you next week.

The Annual One Act Play Festival sponsored by Rosemary De Camp will be held March 12. Three plays were selected by Mr. Charles Slater, drama coach.

"Slight Plight" is by Sally Laughney and stars Bill Mooneyham, Tom Walls, Joy Coffee, and Tom Rippy. It is the story of the situation arising when a few surfers acquire a baby.

IN "SUNSHINE" Bill Doty, senior at the University of Kansas is appearing in a production of "Little Mary Sunshine" in the university's experimental theater. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Doty, 4813 Via El Sereno.

Torrance High School 14th Annual One-Act Play Festival will be presented in the high school auditorium Friday, March 12.

Featured will be three original one-act plays written, directed, and staged by students. Kathy McDonald wrote "Juvie," which Rebecca Goldstein will direct. "Slight Plight" and "Sector 1508" will be directed by writer Sally Laughney and Richard Tierman.

Problems being faced by teenage boy and the force understanding of his girlfriend set the mood for "Juvie." Lucille Grooms will be seen as Jane, while Lynn Baren takes the part of David Duane Lyons and Bob Mulligan also have featured roles in the play.

"Slight Plight" tells the story of a surfer trio and their landlady and the comical situations which arise after a small bundle of joy is left on their doorstep. Bill Mooneyham, Tom Rippy, and Dennis Lunmann play the surfers. Their landlady is portrayed by Joy Coffey.

Writer-director Tierman argues that the world's destruction will come through man's emotions in his drama, "Sector 1508." Maureen Rose, Keith Benton, and Tierman will portray the roles.

Following the performances, a panel of critics headed by television actress Rosemary DeCamp will discuss the plays. The critics include professors of drama from several Southern California colleges and universities.

The festival is open to the public. Ticket information is available at Torrance High School.

Latin Club To Attend Convention

Five Torrance High students will attend the state convention of the California Chapter of the Junior Classical League in Fresno Saturday and Sunday.

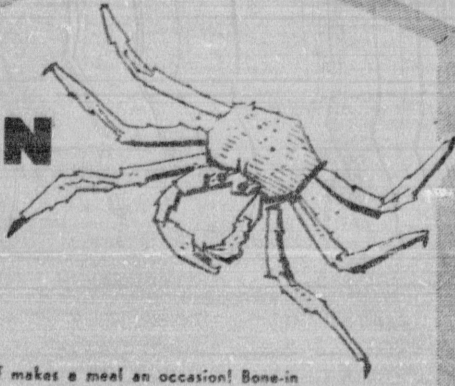

The students, all members of the Torrance High Latin Club, are Kathleen Warner, Richard Thompson, David McKenzie, Deborah McKenzie, and Deborah Fox. Mrs. Nancy Davis, club sponsor, will accompany the group.

Student body funds are being used to finance the trip. (Advertisement)
