THE FIRST MAEL EXPECTED TO FALL IN LAST WEEK'S PURSE MONEY RECORD OF $503,000... AN ESTIMATED $50,000 WILL BE RELEASED THIS WEEK.

Santa Anita Switches to Sulky Races

America's fastest growing spectator sport—harness racing—moves into the Southern California sports spotlight at Santa Anita beginning Saturday for a 20-day stand that will feature much of the nation's top trotting and pacing talent in addition to the country's leading drivers.

Lured West by a record-rich purse schedule totalling over a half million dollars, some of the greatest names in harness racing, both equine and human, will perform during the spring season amid the great natural beauty of easy-to-reach Santa Anita Park in Arcadia.

Racing will be conducted on a Tuesday through Saturday basis, the only Monday racing being scheduled for April 5, which kicks off "get-away week."

South Enters Track Meet

South High's track team will participate in the Huntington Beach Invitational Track Meet March 27 at Huntington Beach.

Trustees of the Torrance schools approved the meet for the Spartans and authorized transportation for the team. Board approval was required because the meet is being held outside Los Angeles County.
