

LOCKER ROOM STORY . . . Dodger Pitcher Don Drysdale (far left) explains how baseball players receive dressing room rubdowns to residents of New Horizons. Listening to Drysdale are, from left, Forrest and Vicki Wilson and Betty and Max Hill.

Extras Offered Buyers Of New Horizons Homes

Complete facilities for golf, swimming, billiards, card playing, square dancing, tennis, sauna baths, physical conditioning or hobbies and crafts comes with the purchase of a New Horizons garden home, according to Sales Director Lee Schiefelbein.

Garden home owners in this complete adult recreation community have time to enjoy them all," Schiefelbein said, "because they are spared the time-consuming and back-breaking chores of home and yard upkeep. The lawn mowing, weeding, fertilizing, trimming, watering and all exterior painting is done for them.

Residence in this adult community includes part ownership and the use of

New Horizons nine-hole golf course, the $150,000 Town Hall, two heated swimming pools, a separate recreation and health center, and facilities for pursuing a score of various hobbies or leisure activities.

Many residents take a daily workout under the capable supervision of Wayne "Doc" Anderson, famed trainer of the Los Angeles Dodgers, who serves as physical fitness director at the garden homes development.

Residence is limited to couples with one spouse 35 or older, or single persons at least 35. No children under 18 may become permanent residents.

All of the two- or three-bedroom homes are carpeted wall-to-wall. All have two baths. The step-saving gold medallion kitchens include a Hotpoint "top-of-the-line" electric range and oven, a 140-degree Stantony warming over, an automatic dishwasher and a food waste disposer. Individual thermostats in each room control ceiling radiant heat.

These gold medallion garden homes are priced from only $19,995.

Prospective new home buyers looking for ways to enjoy their leisure time are invited to visit the attractively furnished models located on Sepulveda Boulevard between Hawthorne Avenue and Crenshaw Boulevard in Torrance. Four tastefully decorated models are open from 9 a.m. until dark daily.

The telephone is 325-6161.

Frank Ford Honored by Post 761X

Members of Explorer Post 761X, sponsored by the Loyal Order of Moose Gardena Lodge 2062, have honored their advisor, Frank R. Ford Sr., for 21 years of service to Scouts.

The post also honored Ford for three years as advisor to the post.

A surprise dinner at Chinatown was the setting for the tribute. In addition to members of the post, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cabiz, representing the Moose Lodge, and Richard A. Carter, a South Bay District Scout executive, attended the dinner.

Carter presented Ford his Scouters Key, an award recognizing three years of service as an advisor. The post presented a plaque to Ford through its Father's Committee.

Mrs. Ford received a corsage and a silver lapel pin with the date engraved on it.

Ford first entered Scouting activities during World War II when his eldest son joined a Cub Pack in Arizona. A veteran of the Navy, Ford remained active in Scouting while in Alaska and took over the duties of advising Scout Troop 761 when he moved to Torrance. Since 1962 he has advised Explorer Post 761X.

The 15 Explorers include: Bill Ament, who is post president, John Creasey, Lonny Miller, Gary Graff, Frank Andersen, Tim Beck, Mike Carman, Jim Derry, Mac Edmunds, James Gibert, Kurt Grochall, Don Miller, Church Semonian, and Steve and Stan Sibley—the Post's only set of twins.

FAMILY AFFAIR . . . Lnda Knox, in her capacity as "Miss Torrance," wields the shears for grand opening of Community Realty at 4864 W. 190th St. On the left are Donald Dickson, real estate broker, and operator of Community Realty, and Mrs. Dickson. On the right are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd O. Dickson, Donald's parents. The elder Dickson is owner of Dickson Construction Co. which is headquartered with Community Realty.

New Members Join Board Of Aeronca

The addition of three members to the board of directors of the Aeronca Manufacturing Corp. has been announced by S. J. Kuderer, president.

The new officers are Sherwood Egbert of Los Angeles, H. Chapman Rose of Cleveland, Ohio, and Louis Pur-mort of Whittier. Egbert, formerly president of the Studebaker Corp., is a management consultant in Los Angeles, and represents the holders of a substantial amount of the corporation's common stock.

Rose, an attorney, is director of Lear Siegler, Inc., Lincoln Electric Co., Brush Beryllium Co., Clevite Corp., and other corporations. He is a former under secretary of the treasury.

Purmort is president of Central-Hadley Co., of Whittier.

Winners Chosen at El Camino

Faculty members of El Camino College have named the winners of the Bank of America's Junior College Business Awards Program. The program authorizes each school to select two students and the awards are based upon scholarship, personality, and participation in school activities or outside employment.

Joseph Richmond, an accounting major, and Carol Creighton, a secretarial major, were selected by the El Camino faculty and are the recipients of cash awards of $200 each.

Awards will be presented Friday during a banquet at the Beverly-Hilton Hotel, Beverly Hills, where all winners from Southern California junior colleges will be honored.

The two winners will also receive plaques at El Camino's spring awards dinner, honoring them for their achievements.

RICHMOND OF 1811 Carnegie Lane, Redondo Beach, was graduated from Serra High School in 1959 as valedictorian of his class. He served a term as student body vice-president, and was named Serra's Man of the Year in '59. He previously won a Bank of America high school award, receiving a scholarship to UCLA.

Miss Creighton, a Leuzinger High grad, received a $100 scholarship to attend El Camino. A resident of Hawthorne, she has a 3.17 grade point average.

Bank of America launched its business award program to encourage young people to prepare for business careers. More than 70 colleges throughout the state participate in the program.

DANCE

Square dancing, ballroom dancing and weekly parties are just some of the 23 recreational activities enjoyed by residents of New Horizons-South Bay. Wayne "Doc" Anderson, famed trainer of the Los Angeles Dodgers, is on duty daily as physical fitness and activities director. All the many recreational facilities are yours to enjoy when you live in New Horizons.

NEW HORIZONS SOUTH BAY

New Horizons-South Bay is a complete adult recreation and garden home community. To maintain its adult atmosphere, one spouse or single persons must be at least 35, and no children under 18 may become permanent residents.

Garden Homes $19,995 from A RAY WATT Development

*A monthly maintenance fee, assessed by the elected Board of Governors, provides for maintenance of all of the recreation facilities, for gardening and exterior painting. New Horizons is a development of Torrance Knolls, 22727 Maple Avenue, Torrance.

Hotpoint DRIVING INSTRUCTIONS: The Complete Adult Recreation and Garden Home community is located on Sepulveda Boulevard between Crenshaw and Hawthorne in Torrance. Phone 325-6161.

CARSON ESTATES

VA NO DOWN payment

THE BEST LOCATION

Freeway close to everything in Southern California

THE BEST PRICE

2 story, 4 bedroom, 2 bath homes, from

THE BEST FINANCING

VA NO DOWN payment
FHA terms available
Conventional low down payment

$26,495

Carson Estates homes, created by Ray Watt, one of the Nation's most honored builder-developers, are fully carpeted. The Balanced Power kitchens include built-in Waste King range and oven, dishwasher and disposer. Fireplaces include gas log lighter and damper. Formica kitchen and pullman bath counter tops.

Three tastefully furnished model homes range up to 1794 square feet of family living space. Models are on display from 10:00 a.m. 'til dark daily.

Carson Estates is located at 220th Street and Vera, one-half block south of Carson—one block north of the San Diego Freeway, midway between the Harbor and Long Beach Freeways, just two miles away. Telephone 834-4871 Area Code 213