

Tartar Teen Talk

By Robin Bingham

Boerger's Bombers are on the loose! March 9 the Tartar Five earned its 25th victory of the season by defeating Buena High, 52-51, in the semi-finals of the CIF playoffs. The Tartars met Servite High last night in Long Beach.

FRIDAY, the annual One-Act Play Festival was presented in the Torrance High auditorium at 8 a.m. The three original plays to be featured were "Slight Plight" by Sally Laughney, "Juvie" by Kathy McDonald, and "Sector 1508" written by Richard Tyerman.

A critique by a panel of critics with Rosemary DeCamp narrator was given following the performances.

THE DONKEYS are coming! April 1, (no fooling) at 8 p.m. the junior class will sponsor a Donkey basketball game. The varsity basketball team will challenge the Torrance High faculty. Players will be mounted on donkeys.

An evening of fun and excitement is promised for all. The public is invited and tickets are on sale in the student Activities Office, $1 for adults and 50 cents for children (under 12). Proceeds will be used toward the expenses of the Junior-Senior prom.
