

MRS. JAMES K. LEES
... New Auxiliary President
(Portrait by Seeman)

Installation April 6

Hospital Auxiliary Elects New Officers

Mrs. James K. Lees of Miraleste was unanimously elected to serve as president of the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary for the year 1965-66, at a meeting held Tuesday at the Crystal Room of the Palms Restaurant. Mrs. Ernest G. Butt, president, presided over the meeting. Mrs. Lees has been an active member of the Auxiliary since 1952, and has served in several offices and chairmanships. For the past two years, she served as second vice president.

The new president-elect is a native of New York, and a graduate of the School of Nursing of the Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center in New York. Her husband is a practicing physician in Torrance, and immediate past Chief of Staff of Torrance Memorial Hospital. Dr. and Mrs. Lees are the parents of four children, Allyson, 12, Melinda, 11, James Matthew, 4 and John Kinler, 18 months. The family attends the First Presbyterian Church of San Pedro.

Mrs. Lees is a past president of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, and was active on the Marina District, California Federation

Club Attends

'My Fair Lady'

Members of a local bridge club were entertained at a luncheon at the Cave du Roi in Los Angeles on a recent Wednesday afternoon, after which they attended "My Fair Lady."

Enjoying the luncheon-theater event were Meses M. A. Bauman, W. C. Boswell, Eugene Cook, Dean Sears, Paul Loranger, John Melville, Mel Millar and Delbert Thomsen.

Mrs. Thomsen will be the club's next hostess.

JoAnn Newville to Wed Lawrence Appel in April

At a recent dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Newville, 417 Paseo de la Playa, Hollywood Riviera, the engagement of their daughter, JoAnn, to Lawrence Appel, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Appel of Redondo Beach was announced.

The wedding will be solemnized April 24 at the St. Lawrence Catholic Church. The future bride was graduated from Marymount elementary school and the Immaculate Heart High School in Hollywood. She then attended Maxim's Academy in Paris, France, returning to continue her studies at Mount St. Mary's College in Los Angeles. The bride-elect is now employed by UTA airlines.

Miss Newville was presented at the Los Angeles Athletic Club Debutante Ball and again in Paris at the Bal des Debutantes. Her fiancé is a graduate of St. Mary's College in Oakland where he majored in English. He is now teaching at a parochial high school in Berkeley.

JOANN NEWVILLE
... April Bride
(Hanson's Studio)

Women's Club Junior Board. She is a member of the Women's Auxiliary to the Los Angeles County Medical Assn., and the Miraleste and Dapplegray Schools PTA.

Elected to serve with her were Meses. Robert S. Sleeth, Jr., first vice president; John P. Schwartz, second vice president; Joseph Helphand, third vice president; John Rice, recording secretary; Otis Berge, corresponding secretary; Laurence Brown, treasurer.

Others are Meses. Alina Smith, baby photo chairman; R. A. Bingham, gift shop chairman; Wayne Blumel, maternity tea chairman; Marie Wagner, Pinkie and sewing chairman; George W. Post, reception desk chairman; and Kenneth Miller, Candy Stripper chairman.

Preceding the business meeting, a showing of spring fashions was presented by Mrs. Ella Schwartz of the Levy Dept. Store.

Installation of the new officers will take place at a luncheon meeting April 6 at the Port O'Call Restaurant in San Pedro.

To Washington

Mrs. William E. Taber and 11-month-old daughter, Amy, 5510 Cathann, and Mrs. Bryan Finnigan and children, Lori 3, and Kevin 14 months, left Monday morning for Lake Chelan, Washington, to attend the wedding of Mrs. Finnigan's sister. They will return on March 23.

HERALD SPRING SEASON . . . Caribbean Room at the Tasman Sea restaurant will be the setting for the seventh annual Spring Dinner Dance of the Torrance Chapter City of Hope on Saturday, March 27. Proceeds from this outstanding social event will go to the Pilot Medical Center, City of Hope in Duarte. Choosing their costumes from an array of new spring fashions are, from left, Meses. Bert Lynn, holding a new creation, John Arensmeyer and Ella Schwartz. Mac Sanders' Combo will furnish music for the cocktail-dinner event. (Press-Herald photo)

Press-Herald
Social World
Edna Cloyd, Editor
MARCH 17, 1965 B-1

ANNUAL FASHION PARADE . . . The season's newest fashions for "A Lovely Lady" will be presented by the Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, on April 3 at the Indian Village restaurant. A cocktail hour at noon precedes the fashion extravaganza, proceeds from which will go to CDA charities. A committee, busy with final plans for the event, includes, left, Meses. Charles Butterfield, grand regent; Dorothy Boyle, decorations chairman; J. W. Crew and Ralph Sullivan, show chairman. Tickets are now on sale by court members. (Press-Herald photo)

'A Lovely Lady' Theme Fashion Extravaganza For CDA Charities

Plans are in the final stages for the annual benefit fashion show "A Lovely Lady," sponsored by Court St. Catherine 1378, Catholic Daughters of America, which will be held at the Smith Bros. Indian Village restaurant on Saturday, April 3.

A cocktail hour will be held from 12 to 1 p.m. with a luncheon at 1. A parade of the newest in spring and summer fashions will follow.

Mrs. Charles Butterfield, grand regent of the local court, has stated the proceeds from the event will again this year benefit the many charities which the Catholic Daughters support, the largest of which is Camp Teresita Pines, a summer camp for girls at Wrightwood, which is sponsored entirely by the Catholic Daughters of the Los Angeles Diocese.

Mrs. Ralph Sullivan is serving as general chairman. Other chairwomen include Mmes. Leonard Young, reservations; Paul McDonald, models; Robert Klaesges, programs; J. W. Crew, advertising; George Rausch, door prizes and table favors; Arnold Dixon and Dorothy Boyle, decorations; Robert Hammerle, main door prize.

Fashions for "A Lovely Lady" will be modeled by Meses. Don Manor, Rudolph Martinez, Robert Crain, Stephen Teglas, Gerald Revell, John Geouge, Marcel Derouin, Al DeLuccio, Garrett Gifford, and Marian Smith.

The very smartest in fashions for the younger set will be shown by Miss Tracy Martinez. Miss Erin Peck and Master Timothy McDonald.

Kiwanis Past Prexy Wives Plan Event

Mrs. Paul Shinoda, wife of the immediate past president of the Torrance Kiwanis Club, entertained the Kiwanis Past Presidents' Wives at a luncheon at her home, 2716 Torrance Blvd., last Wednesday afternoon.

During a business meeting, following the luncheon, plans for a coffee to honor Mrs. Ted Olson, wife of the current president of Torrance Kiwanis were made. The event will be held April 24 at the Shinoda home.

Attending Wednesday's meeting were Meses. Dean Sears, Don Hitchcock, Tom Wilkes, Parke Montague, Kenneth Anderson, Howard Wood, Alden Smith and J. A. Barrington.

Minnesota Trip

Mr. and Mrs. George Stanford returned Sunday evening by plane from St. Paul, Minn. where they had spent three weeks visiting relatives.

All Area Women and Girls Invited

YWCA Membership Drive Gets Under Way March 19

"For Today's World Invest in Yourself . . . Join the Y.W.C.A." is the theme of the month-long membership drive to be staged throughout the area. Young Women's Christian Association of Torrance joined with Mayor Albert Isen in proclaiming March 19 to April 19 as Y.W.C.A. month.

The association is inviting all women and girls to invest themselves to be prepared to meet the demands of today's world.

Rosemary DeCamp, television actress and resident of the Torrance area, has been named honorary membership chairman. Serving as co-chairmen are Meses. Kenneth McVey, June Roper and Carol Wood, executive director of the Y.W.C.A.

Learning to care and to serve are two of the aspects of individual development that the Y.W.C.A. offers the women of the community, stated Mrs. Wood.

This month will be devoted to a concentrated drive to reach girls and women of all races, creeds and economic backgrounds. All residents are invited to visit the YWCA during this month to get a first-hand look at the kind of program available.

Many activities are planned during this month, among them a get-acquainted luncheon at the Y.W.C.A. building, 2328 Carson St., on April 1. This is being staged for community leaders. A resume of past projects and present programming will be reviewed.

IT'S OFFICIAL . . . YWCA Membership Month has been officially designated as March 19 to April 19 when women and girls of the entire area will be invited to visit the Y, study its program and join its activities. Mayor Albert Isen displays the signed proclamation as YWCA workers, from left, Meses. June Roper, membership committee member, Kenneth McVey, publicity chairman, and Carol Wood, executive director at the YWCA, look on. (Press-Herald photo)

For Medical Scholarships

Alpha Delta 'Day at Races'

Southland Alpha Delta Pi alumnae will host their fifth annual benefit party at the harness races Saturday, March 20, concluding with a cocktail dansant in the Santa Anita Turf Club after the last race.

Mrs. W. M. Robinson of Fullerton, president of the sorority's Southern Area Council, has named Mrs. John W. Givens of Encino, chairman of the race-day fund raiser. Mrs. Robert Fakin of Whittier is co-chairman.

Proceeds go to the McCausland-Holmes Foundation, which creates scholarships and fellowships for medical students interested in research in medicine, surgery and related sciences. Projects are carried out through the USC School of Medicine. Dr. Frances Holmes of Los Angeles and Beverly Hills, co-founder of the non-profit foundation with her husband, Dr. A. M.

McCausland, is an Alpha Delta Pi Alumna.

Among the South Bay Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae and their husbands planning to attend the "Day at the Races" are Meses. and Mmes. Keith Moody, James Hall, Jack Parks, Albert Smith, William Taber, John Johnson, of Torrance; Charles Martz, John McGovern, Marvin Wood, Charles Penny, and Joseph Mitchler, Redondo Beach.

VISIT THE TRACKS . . . South Bay Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae, from left, Meses. Lewis Roland, J. R. Davidson of Rolling Hills and William Taber of Torrance, visit the Santa Anita Turf Club in preparation for their "Day at the Races" and cocktail dansant set for March 20. This is a McCausland-Holmes Foundation benefit staged by Southland Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae. (Vic Stein photo)