

El Camino Holds 12th Press Day

Representatives from 29 area high schools participated in the El Camino College 12th annual press day. The competition included more than 300 students who vied for four major awards. First place trophies were awarded to Diane Clathworthy, Mira Costa High School, for the top entry in the news category; Linda Richardson, Mira Costa, features; Les Haurath, Lutheran, editorials, and Bob Wyes, West, sports. Names of each of the four first-place winners will be engraved on a plaque, permanently displayed in the journalism library and conference room.

OTHER WINNERS in the news division of the writer's tournament were Charlene Grossholz, Rolling Hills High School, second; Judy Mondy, El Segundo High, third, and Honorable Mention winners were Jeff Knokey, Rolling Hills; Susie Lavanas, South; Janet Hanson, North, and Jeanette McClain, Hawthorne.

category were Bob Wold, Essex, Redondo, third; and honorable mention, Dave Black, Mira Costa; Bob Whitney, Torrance and Richard Martin, Morningside. Award-winning feature writers included Cris Hunt, Bishop Montgomery, second; Sheila Jones, North, third, and Honorable Mention Linda McNeil, Redondo Beach, and Simone Provins, South High. Receiving honors for their Peter Gregora, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gregora of 17220 Elgar Ave., Torrance, has been listed on the Honor Roll at the University of Redlands for the fall semester. Gregora, a sophomore majoring in International Relations, maintained a 4.0 grade point average during the semester. Under the marking system used, 4.0 is equivalent to a straight "A" average. PRIVATE SUPPORT Private support of higher education in California now totals about $100 million per year, ranking second to New York's $115 million.
