William C. Wynns, president of the Carson Lions Club, participated in the dedication of Lions Clubs Dime and Prayer Wall at the City of Hope.

He was present when nearly 150 Southland clubs from the Mexican border to Bishop joined in ceremonies under the sponsorship of six California districts of the organization.

Beverly Kelly, Brian Campbell, and Philip Ward have captured top awards in the Catholic Forensic League finals held last Friday and Saturday.

Miss Kelly won first place in dramatic interpretation, defeating 72 other students from Catholic high schools throughout the area. Campbell, a freshman, and Ward received excellent ratings in debate.

Thomas Sullivan, Robert Salazar, Jean Carr, and Ward previously qualified for the quarter-finals of the National Forensic League qualifying tournament.
