Dodger Game Will Benefit Marymount

Marymount alumnae, students, families and friends will all head for the Los Angeles Dodger Stadium when the Dodgers play the Philadelphia Phillies in a benefit game for the Marymount College Alumnae Scholarship Fund at 8 p.m. on Saturday, April 24.

Chairman for the second annual event is Miss Peggy Fitzgerald of Pasadena, assisted by alumnae president Mrs. Donald Perkins of Fullerton and ticket chairman Mrs. Hilma Lenihan of Palos Verdes.

The game was arranged as a benefit project for the scholarship fund by Marymount faculty member L. Andrew Castle with Emil J. Bavasi, general manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers, and tickets for the field level boxes are the regular stadium price.

Mr. Castle has also arranged for free buses to take the baseball fans from and to the Marymount College campus in Palos Verdes Estates, and the Marymount contingent will sit in one section of the stadium.

Dinner Party

Mrs. Frances Anderson was a dinner hostess recently at the Smith Bros. Indian Village restaurant in Torrance. Guest of honor was her sister, Mrs. Patsy Christensen of Gardena, who was noting her birthday anniversary. Guests included Mrs. Bessie Anderson.

Announce Poetry Winners

Students representing three parochial schools in the South Bay Area were awarded certificates and cash prizes by Court Our Lady of Victory 1344, for their winning entries in local competition of the Catholic Daughters of America National Poetry Contest.

Mrs. Roger Ste. Marie of Torrance, grand regent of this local Court, presented the winners with their awards last week.

Winning first place in Division I, grades four through six, for his poem, "My Special Friend," was Don Paul Jackson, fourth grade student at Our Lady of Guadalupe School, Hermosa Beach.

First place winner in Division II, grades seven through nine was Richard Arias, eighth grade student at American Martyrs School, Hermosa Beach. His poem was titled "The King."

There was no activity in Division III for students in grades 10-11-12 as previously announced due to non-availability of time on the high school students level.

Second and third place winners in Division I were St. James School, Redondo Beach. Students James Buechsenstein, fourth grader for his poem "God's Love For Us," and Trina Titus, fifth grade, "Dreams." Both of these students live in Torrance.

Division II second and third place winners respectively were Marilyn Daigle, seventh grade, American Martyrs, "An Act of Injustice," and Janet Moreau, eighth grade, St. James, "A Prayer."

The 177 poems received from these three local parochial schools under the sponsorship of Court Our Lady of Victory, were judged by Mrs. William Hagen of Redondo Beach.
