Varsity Trophy To PV

Palos Verdes won the varsity championship at the In-glewood Relays Wednesday evening, edging South High on the strength of points earned in an invitational event in which the Spartans were not invited to participate

An error which accidental ly listed the invitational event among those to be scored was responsible for the confusion Protests by several coaches were overruled when Palos Verdes mentor Bill O'Rourke produced a memo listing the invitational event a mong those to be scored.

O'Rourke said he would not have used his sprinters in the event if they could not have earned the points. He was reluctantly upheld by meet director Ray South-stone stone.

Final score for Palos Verdes was 28, while South fin-ished in the second position in 23.

Four new meet records were established when the relays, delayed six days be-cause of bad weather, finally got under way.

Dave Cronk of South vault-ed 13 feet, 6 inches into the air to lead his teammates to a 37-foot, 6-inch pole vault record.

Inglewood set a new shot put record of 161 feet, 11 inches, and Dominguez set a new high jump record with a combined total of 18 feet, a como 1 inch.

The only running event in which a new record was established was the varsity two-mile relay. Palos Verdes turned the distance in 8:00.7, Santa Monica won the Bee
