

City to Get Aviation Gasoline Tax Refund

Aviation gasoline tax refunds totaling $335,000 will be made available this month to cities, counties and airport districts owning and operating some 176 public airports, according to Clyde P. Barnett, state director of Aeronautics.

The total amount available to Torrance for the calendar year ending Dec. 30, 1964 is $1,945.70.

The Aeronautics Board allocates Airport Assistance Funds annually to public owned airport which are collected by the state in taxes on aviation fuels and not refunded to general aviation aircraft owners. This is the fourth year, with a maximum of $2,500 per airport, that the funds have been authorized.

To be eligible a city, county or airport district must agree to match the amount of aviation gas money with local funds set aside solely for airport or aviation purposes.

This year the Airport Assistance Funds had to be prorated below the $2,500 maximum as 170 airports participated in the plan. The proration of the fund for 1964 depleted the fund and there will be no acquisition and development funds available during 1965.

Craig D. Kyle of 2824 W. 177th St. was named to San Francisco State College's Honors List for high scholastic achievement.

Pacific Smelting Co. Will Offer College Aid to Boy

Pacific Smelting Co. of Torrance will offer a five-year college scholarship to a senior boy who plans to study engineering, mathematics, or science at an accredited college.

The scholarship program has been in operation in the Torrance schools for the past eight years.

The award will be for $500 each year for five years, according to M. D. Schwartz, president of Pacific Smelting Co.

Applications may be secured from the school counseling offices and must be submitted by May 10. The winner must be single at the time of his selection. There are no restrictions as to choice of college, so long as the college is accredited.
