WILLIAM KING JR.

William King Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William King, 2541 Date Circle, has been named carrier of the month in a sales contest among Press-Herald junior dealers.

Making the announcement was Darrell M. Westcott, Press-Herald circulation manager.

"Bill has the qualities that go into making a successful young businessman," Westcott said.

"In addition, he has ambition, character, and a desire to please his customers.

The Press-Herald circulation chief said King's customer list had shown remarkable growth in recent months, and that "the list is constantly growing and his earnings grow with it."

Better Food Markets Set Anniversary Celebration

A chainwide anniversary celebration to mark the firm's 37th year of service to Southland homemakers begins Thursday in all Better Food Markets.

A rapidly expanding, locally owned food chain, Better Food is dedicating the celebration to its founder, the late Herman Reicher, who opened his first food store 37 years ago in South-west Los Angeles.

Long a respected leader in the Southern California food industry, Reicher was a pioneer in the development of the modern supermarket style of retailing, and introduced many of the innovations of mass marketing which now are standard practices in the field.

The store's founder received his start in the food sales business with an old-fashioned peddler's wagon of fruits and vegetables.

His next step was to a corner fruit stand which eventually led to the establishment of the firm which now serves Southern California from 10 big supermarkets. Since the death last year of Mr. Reich-er, Marvin Dizak has headed the operation as executive vice president and general manager.

In announcing the sale, the manager said the "celebration of our 37th anniversary affords us an opportunity to present some of the finest buys we have ever offered in every department of the store."

He said market officials had spent months preparing for the event and that they were determined "to give our customers the lowest prices it is possible to offer."

"We expect to establish new sales records for our company during this sale," he added.

Navy Ensign Snowden C. DuBois, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. DuBois of 17017 Yukon Ave., was graduated

March 26 from the U. S. Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla. He is continuing his training at other air fields in the Pensacola area.

"repent" me?

The world around us is always changing, and so are we. It's the only way we can progress. That basically is what "repent" means — to change our thinking, for the better. At the deepest level, it's a spiritual liberating process, impelling man towards his divine destiny. Hear this public lecture, "Why Not Change Your Thinking?" by ROY J. LINNIG, a member of the Board of Lectureship of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.
