

Prostitution Topic for South Bay Forum Panel

The legal and moral aspects of prostitution as it concerns both the individual and society will be discussed by a panel tonight at the Torrance Recreation Center.

The program is one in the series, "Explorations into Controversy," sponsored by the South Bay Forum, Inc. The 1965 series has been devoted to a discussion of morality in 20th Century America.

Moderator for the evening will be Newell Barrett, Judge of the Superior Court.

Panelists are Capt. Walter R. Howell, chief of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's vice squad; Burton Marks, an attorney who represented Miss Carol Lane in the "resorting" case and Dr. Charles Wahl, chief of the division of psychosomatic medicine at the UCLA Medical Center.

Tickets for the program are $1 for adults, 50 cents for students. They will be available at the door. The program will begin at 7:45.

South Bay Forum, Inc., is a non-profit educational association which seeks to bring speakers to the area to discuss all sides of current issues.

ILLNESSES NOTED

One case each of hepatitis and scarlet fever was reported to the Los Angeles County Health Department from the Torrance area for the week ending April 10.

Just Dial 714-555-1212

National conformity has gained ground in the Southwest.

General Telephone Co. information operators in Redondo Beach will advise customers who dial "113" for Orange County telephone numbers to dial 714-555-1212, instead, beginning Sunday at 1201 a.m., according to Bernard LeBaron, South Bay division manager.

In case 714-555-1212 appears lengthy for the memory waves, just remember this is THE information number being established nationally to simplify dialing.

Sales Show Record Jump

Retail sales in Torrance being a recent compilation made by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Torrance ranked third in the five-county Los Angeles Metropolitan area in retail sales. Actual increase in dollars was $184,889,000, according to the report.

A chamber spokesman said the increase was noted during the report.

Production '65

South High Schedules 'Sound Spectacular'

"Production '65," a combined effort by the music and drama departments at South High School, will be presented Friday evening in the Spartan gymnasium.

The production, first of its kind ever offered at South High, will feature music from Broadway hits, musical comedy and motion pictures. More than 150 performers will be directed by a production staff of eight students and three faculty members.

Glenn Hawley is faculty director for the show, and Marlin Muse has produced it. Andrew Tully is in charge of student production and Gary Anderson is the student music director. Carol Lee is the choreographer.

Music from "Camelot," "Gypsy," and "The Unsinkable Molly Brown," will be featured. Numbers by Lerner and Lowe and by George M. Cohan will highlight the production.

Tickets are $1 for adults and 75 cents for students who present a studentbody card. Children will be admitted for 50 cents. Tickets may be purchased at South High before the show or at the door.

PRIMAIVAIRE

is made of the world's best pure wool

Ken Venturi demonstrates HART SCHAFFNER & MARX-manship. He shows his style in the 1965 pure wool Primavaire suit. Ken Venturi looks good on the golf course or off. He has a winning touch, a winning smile and a champion's choice in clothing. His Primavaire suit by Hart Schaffner & Marx wears the mark of the world's best pure wool. In a just-right weight you can wear comfortably ten months of the year.

The comfort is sewn in to last, too. By tailors who, like Ken, are "pros." For instance, flip a lapel forward and see how it snaps back. Lies flat. Stays that way because of row upon row of interloop stitching inside. Thus, the look you buy is the look you keep.

Hart Schaffner & Marx-manship is the art of looking great at important moments. It's as easy as a trip to our store.
