

A Penny for your Thoughts

By HAL FISHER
President Johnson and the Treasury Department along with other government agencies have launched a campaign to get people who can afford to travel abroad to "See America First," to stem the flow of gold out of the country. Human nature being what it is, there is a natural desire in all of us to see foreign lands, and group tours plus economy flights are making it easier than ever to fulfill this desire. To find out whether the campaign is getting to the people, I asked several women without telling them why.

"If you could go wherever you like on your vacation, where would you go?"

Vickie Olson, 23023 Dana Court:
"Guadalajara, Mexico. The climate and beauty of the area make it a wonderful place to go and relax. Its parks, cathedrals, museums, fishing, and art shops make it better than a world's fair."

Alice Shinoda, 2716 Torrance Blvd.:

"I'd go to Japan. I was born and raised in America and I've never been there. It would be nice to see the home of my ancestors."

Marcia Cook, 28338 Ponte Vedra Ave., San Pedro:

"I'd like to travel to southern France to visit my daughter and her family. After that I'd go to Florence, Italy to see the palaces."

Irene Wallner, 3833 Paseo Del Campo, Palos Verdes:

"I'd go to Florida to see my brother. After some time there I'd travel up the east coast to New York City and take in the World's Fair."

Marion Wisdom, 3131 Yellowtail Ave., Los Alamitos:

"All over South America. Peru to see the Inca ruins, then to Santiago, Chile, to see my daughter. Then to Buenos Aires, Rio, Brazilia, and up the coast to the Caribbean Islands."

Tartar Teen Talk

By Robin Bingham

After a week of sun, surf, and snow, Tartars have returned to Torrance High for the final lap of the school year. Students are now putting forth a last big effort to bring a successful close to the school year.

The final quarter brings a full calendar of activities. The annual variety show "moments to Remember" will be staged tonight in the auditorium. Curtain time is 8 p.m. Under the direction of Robert Webber, music director, the dra Fountaine, Vickie Garrison, Margherita Gigliotti, Kristin Kind, Diane Johnson, Sam Martin, Johanna Morris, Roberta Myers, Colin Perreault, Margaret Foenisch, Chris Sciarrotta, and Cheryl.

Authorities in the field of art will judge the work.

ART WORK may be purchased at the exhibit, which will continue during school hours for two weeks. The public is invited to view the show.

Attention car drivers! Are you embarrassed by dingy windshields and a car that is a little less than clean? Are you humiliated by hitchhikers who would rather walk than be seen in your dirty car? Well, weary drivers, the sophomore class has come to your rescue. A car wash will be held Saturday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the annex parking lot. Tickets are $1 and may be purchased from members of the sophomore class.

Seniors who have paid $10 class dues and juniors who have paid $7.50 class dues may attend the Prom free. Otherwise, bids will be $3.

The planning has been done by fall semester president Dennis Masaki and spring semester president Judi Rynhart with their respective councils, under the guidance of Vincent De DiFiore. A memorable evening is promised for all.
