

New Historical Society To Hold Meeting Tonight

Members of the newly formed Historical Society of Centinela Valley will see some recent gifts and hear a talk on "Ranchos of the Bay Area" during a meeting tonight at the Hudnall School, 331 W. Olive St., Inglewood. The meeting will begin at 7:45 p.m.

Mrs. Everett Hager, president of the Historical Society of Southern California, will be the speaker. She will discuss the recreational aspects of the ranchos along the coast, "with special emphasis on how the Yankees put to use the abundant life and lures for tourists and settlers alike."

Ruth Mahood will chair the meeting, Elizabeth Nufer, curator for the society, will show some of the gifts which the group has received. Clara Roulette will host the coffee hour.

Charter membership in the organization is still open, according to Roy Rosenberg, president of the group.
