

'Sound of Music' to Open at EC Thursday

"The Sound of Music," Rodgers and Hammerstein's musical story of the von Trapp family will open tomorrow at the Campus Theater of El Camino College at 8:30 p.m. The musical will continue through Saturday and on four successive nights the following week, May 12 through 15.

Featured performers are Mitzzi Castleberry Phillips as Maria Rainer; Frank Ruiz as Captain George von Trapp; and Margaret Davis as the Mother Abbess. The roles of the seven von Trapp children are portrayed by Judy Graham, Mike Mullin, Mark Eimgren, Yolanda Lane, Deborah Lowgren, Julie Ferguson and Patricia Terry. PRODUCED AND directed by Burnett Ferguson, other credits go to Crist Mikkelsen, choral director; James Mack, orchestra director; Les Thomas, technical director, and Robert G. McKinnon, lighting director.

"The Sound of Music" is the story of a girl who leaves a convent to become the governess of the von Trapp children. Her gaiety and kindness inspire the family to courage in the face of Nazi oppression and to the professional life of a family singing group.

May Festival of Arts To Open at Mira Costa

The South Bay-Torrance Civic Symphony is sponsoring and producing the annual May Festival of the Arts for the 17th year May 13, 14, 15, and 16 at the Mira Costa High School auditorium in Manhattan Beach.

The climax of the four-day festival will be the Symphony Ballet program Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Maestro Elyse Aehle has chosen to display the virtuoso quality of the symphony by playing the overture to "Prometheus," a ballet, by Ludwig Von Beethoven, the Fourth Symphony by Johannes Brahms, and the entire ballet music from "Faust" by Charles Gounod.

This magnificent music will be followed by the "Concert Ballet," Valerie Silver director and choreographer, in excerpts from "The Sleeping Beauty" and two new ballets by Valerie Silver, "The Prophet," and "The Dancing Princesses," to music by Tchaikowski, Rachmaninoff, and Glazounow. This dance company drew the most applause and the highest praise at the A.N.T.A. ballet program at the Pilgrimage Bowl.

On Saturday evening at 8 there will be a "program by and for Youth"—adults will also enjoy it. Young artists will appear as vocalists, instrumentalists and composers and in a one act play. A great ballet completes this performance.

The festival will be held at Mira Costa High auditorium. Art exhibits will be on display all four days. Admission to all performances is free. A reserved section is provided for those holding membership cards. For memberships or other information call FR 5-2744 or FR 4-1010.

Contests End for Speakers

Bishop Montgomery High's National Forensic League, moderated by Fr. Leo Gabriel, ended a successful year Saturday with the conclusion of state speaking finals at Santa Barbara.

Montgomery was represented by Beverly Kelly, Miss Kelly qualified for the state finals by earning the all-city title with a dramatic interpretation of "Po' Sandy" by Charles W. Chestnut at the University of Southern California in the state contest.

Another student speaker, sophomore Philip Ward, won a certificate of excellence in extemporaneous speaking at Palos Verdes High School. He also won a gold medal in debate during the same event.
