

May Day For Ladies

Mothers and daughters of the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection will be "queens" for the day on Saturday when men of the church serve their annual mother-daughter luncheon. Making heart decorations for the event are, from left, seated, Mmes. J. Ralph Black, Lloyd Schemmel and Arthur Kealey, committee members. Three-year-old Patty Black hands a heart to Mrs. Schemmel. Mother-Daughter Event Set at Lutheran Church

Mothers and daughters will don their new spring dresses and perky chapeaux when they attend the Mothers Club's seventh annual Mother-Daughter Luncheon at the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection on Saturday, May 8.

Mrs. J. Ralph Black, club president, will welcome the guests at 12 noon. Mrs. Bob Newcomb will give the invocation, after which the Men's Club will serve the luncheon. This is the one time of the year that the men put on their aprons and serve the ladies.

Mrs. Michael Sitzer will present the program consisting of a reading by Mrs.

Mrs. Haire Presented Award

Mrs. Thomas Haire, member of Chapter IV of WOLAPO'S, INC. (Wives of Los Angeles Police Officers) was recently presented the "Outstanding Member of 1964" award at the club's annual initiation dinner.

A charter member of Chapter IV, Mrs. Haire has served as president, ticket chairman, and is currently vice-president. She resides in Torrance with her husband and four children, Timothy, Colleen, Darcy and Molly Maureen.

Program for Gourmets Set by Edison

Mona Schaffer, manager and home economist for the California Honey Advisory Board, will make fresh strawberry-lemon pie, Topsy Turvy Cherry cake and other gourmet delights at the Southern California Edison Company's next public program on May 6 at 10 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

The program will be held at the Edison Co.'s Electric Living Center, 125 S. Catalina Ave. in Redondo Beach.

Miss Schaffer has had an extensive background in working with foods for the homemaker. She has written two cook books, worked for General Foods and done food television publicity for General Mills.

The program is free to the public.

B&PW Will Man Booth At Parade
