W. E. Bournes Off on Globe Circling Trip

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bourne, 21434 Meyler Ave., Torrance, left Saturday morning, May 1, by Pan American Air Lines for an around-the-world sightseeing trip, including most of the major countries and the Holy Land.

Mr. Bourne is a retired veteran and an employee at the National Supply Co. in Torrance. Mrs. Bourne is owner of Bourne's Yardage in Gardena. They are both prominent in civic affairs and active members of the First Baptist Church in Torrance.

They will be away forty-two days. Prior to their leaving, the couple was honored at a gala bon voyage buffet dinner given by their daughter, Mrs. James A. Gates III, and their daughter-in-law Mrs.

Wolvertons Celebrate Birthday

The third birthday of Scott Wolverton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wolverton, Opel St. was celebrated April 22 when several of Scott's friends were invited to a luncheon. Yellow and green were the party colors and as each guest departed he selected a favor from a "balloon tree."

Attending were Dianne and Glenn Baker, Lori and Shelly Taylor, Bruce Wolverton and Scott's brother, Gary Wolverton. Unable to attend were Scott's cousins, Brian and Janell Serl of La Puente and Kathy, Robert, Dennis and Mike Kesselman and John Stock.

On April 25, relatives gathered for a family celebration. Enjoying cake and ice cream were grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John King and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Wolverton, also Lorna King; Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolverton and Karin, Judy and Bruce; Roger and Gary Wolverton.

Bill Bourne at the latter's home, 21734 Anza Ave., Torrance.

When the honored couple arrived they were surprised with a greeting from 42 friends and relatives as Bill MacDuff played "Around the World in 80 Days," on the organ.

Arrangements of roses decorated the rooms. The table, covered with rose nylon net, held pictures representative of all the countries. The centerpiece was a multi-colored decorated bon voyage cake.

Guests attending the gala affair included, Messrs. and Mmes Bill Bourne, James A. Gates II, Norman Graff; Albert McNeese, Howard Bragg, Otis Oliver, Wallace Flewelling, Wallace Flewelling, Jr., Jack Wendell Flewelling, Wendell Walker, and Michael Walker.

Others were Mmes Hazel Taylor, Hattie McNeese, Dorothy Burbridge; and Mr. George Pickering.

Also, Vicki, Michael and Mark Bourne; James Gates III; Lynette McNeese; Clark Taylor; Deborah, Lydia, Susanna, Margo and Martha Flewelling; John, Roger, and Rhonda Flewelling, and Michael Walker.
