

Hollywood Reporter

By Mike Connolly

Dear Mike: Why does Frank Sinatra put down my two singing idols, Judy Garland and Ella Fitzgerald? — Don Allerton, Suffern, N. Y.

Dear Don: I read that magazine story too. It could be sour grapes. Frank hasn't had a record that sold 1,000,000 copies since "All the Way," whereas Ella's albums always hit the million-mark and "Judy in Carnegie Hall" is one of the hottest sellers in the history of Capitol Records.

Whatever the reason, his remark, if quoted correctly, was ill advised.

Dear Mr. C.: I have often seen Vince Edwards pointedly referred to as "a gentleman." Am I right in thinking this is some sort of Hollywood Code for a bachelor with morals? — V. Dolan, Campbell, Calif.

Dear V.: How could you describe the colors blue or red to someone who has never seen them? Look in your dictionary; whatever it says, that's what Vince is, and code be blown because every reporter in Hollywood feels the same way about Vince.

Dear Mike: Why is Dick Van Dyke doing such a scrippy picture as "John Henry Falk?" I like him best the way he is — as a comic. — Esther Ballantine, Stanford, Conn.

Dear Esther: Show me a comic who doesn't want to do "Hamlet" or a tragedian who doesn't want to do pratfalls and I'll show you a dead actor.

Dear Sir: I understand Claudio Guzman, Anna Maria Algerghetti's husband, is in show business but have never seen his credit on anything. What does he do? — Irving Geary, Provincetown, Mass.

Dear Irving: Right now he's directing Jane Wald in a hair-rinse commercial for a company in Chicago.

Dear Mike: I blush for Carroll Baker whenever I read that this mother of two small children wants to be a sex-bomb. What's she trying to prove? — Mrs. Allan Klemm, San Diego.

Dear Mrs. Klemm: Her producers put her up to it but I think she'd like to forget it. Another reader writes: "Carroll is too good an actress to travel that route. She strikes me not as sexy, but strictly as a 30-year-old married woman trying to be wicked, as a result of which she's embarrassing rather than provocative." So now you know.

Dear Mr. C.: I don't agree with the UCLA students who named Carroll Baker "The Worst Actress of 1964." There were worse — for instance, Ann-Margret, Sandra Dee, Joey Heatherton, and Kim Novak. However, I do have this to say about Miss Baker — I never saw one girl who had so little and showed so much. — Joseph C. Zielinski, Philadelphia.

Dear Joseph: Shame on you, you've been peeking.

Dear Sir: Could you verify that Dick Chamberlain has purchased a new home? I would like to send him a little gift as a small token of my thanks for the many hours of pleasure I've received from him and his show. — Mary Donahue, New York City.

Dear Mary: I repeat, there will be no home ad-resses printed here. Yes, he has a new home, but Dick would appreciate a heartfelt letter to his sponsors requesting that his show be renewed every bit as much as a gift. If you still want to write direct, his studio is MGM-TV, Culver City.

Dear Mr. C.: Is it possible to change the network's mind about moving "The Man from U.N.C.L.E." to another time and day? I am sure this fine show will lose many of its viewers if the change is made. — K. P. and Friends, Garden Grove.

Dear K.: Blast away, because the network nabobs do pay attention to your letters. Your target is NBC-TV, Burbank.

Dear Mike: I know all about Trini Lopez being one

Del Amo Southern Baptist Church Marks Family Week

Members of the Del Amo Southern Baptist Church, 3915 W. 226th St., are observing Christian Home Week, the Rev. Daniel B. Weaver, pastor, has announced.

of your discoveries, and how you helped get him a recording contract. Now, if you're so big out there in Boobtown, why don't you get him a movie part? — Sally Brice, Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sally: Sit tight, Sweetness-and-Light, Metro just signed him, along with Connie Francis and Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong, for its remake of "Girl Crazy." It starts shooting July 15—crazy!

Emphasis is being placed on the home as the foundation of Christian witness in both church and community, the Rev. Weaver said. A special family night service will be conducted tonight at the church. The pastor will deliver a special message on the problems faced today by the Christian family.

The observance will close with special Mothers Day services Sunday at 11 a.m., the Rev. Weaver said. Mothers will be honored at the 11 a.m. worship service with corsages being given to the oldest and youngest mother, and to the mother with the most children present in church.
