

National Accountants Form New Area Chapter

A Torrance area chapter of the National Accountants Association (NAA) will be chartered here at a dinner May 11. The new chapter is being organized under the leadership of Gil Mohr of Rolling Hills and Jason M. Terry of Palms Verdes Estates.

Mohr, associated with IBM Corp. said Ron Brinkley, national executive director of NAA, will present the new charter at the Jump 'n Jack Restaurant.

Several meetings already have been held by the new group, Mohr said. Regular meetings will be held on the fourth Tuesday of each month at the Jump 'n Jack.

More than 100 accountants, financial officers, and industrial executives are expected to join the new chapter. Some members will be transferred from Long Beach and Los Angeles chapters. Membership will be open to residents of Torrance, the Palms Verdes Peninsula, Lomita, San Pedro, Gardena, Hawthorne, and the beach cities.

Fred W. Mill, retired chief financial officer of the National Supply division of Armo Steel Corp., helped direct the industrial survey which was needed to secure a charter for the new chapter.

Others on the committee directing the new chapter are Harlan Moore of the Farmer Bros. Co. and C. Derwood Heckler, secretary-treasurer of National Supply.

STAMPS QUARTET

The Stamps Quartet will appear at the Harbor City Foursquare Church, 255th and McCoy, May 12, at 7:30 p.m. The quartet, whose theme song is "Give the World a Smile Each Day," travels an average of 100,000 miles a year.
