U.S. Steel Works Cites 16 for Service Records

Sixteen veteran employes with a combined total of nearly 500 years of service at the U. S. Steel Corp.'s Torrance Works have received honors at a special awards luncheon.

Saluted at a Palms Restaurant gathering for their service to U. S. Steel, the 16 men received service awards from William G. Davis Jr., general superintendent of the Torrance facility.

Sharing top honors with 40-year records each are engineering and maintenance employe, Richard H. Olsen of 1558 W. 214th St., Torrance, and rolling mill utility. man, Lupe Hernandez of 16428 Dalton Ave., Gardena.

Two runners-up with 35-year records each are machinist Hartest H. Cook, 717 S. Catalina Ave., and metallurgical employe Louis D. Simpson, 207 S. Juanita, both Redondo Beach.

Others cited by Davis for "contributions and talent in making quality products and Torrance Works a safer, better place to work" were: 30 Years — William M. Everett, accounting, 915 Cota Ave.; George W. Leech, melter foreman, 727 Border Ave.; William H. Cochran, stocker, William H. Cochran, stocker, willing mill, 1606 Gram-tory Ave.; Joseph A. Cucci, rolling mill, 1606 Gram-tory Ave.; Joseph A. Cucci, rolling mill, 1914 Hickory St.; Frank W. Dihope, rolling mill, 215 — 203rd St. — all from Torrance; and Francisco Vega, rolling mill, 1856 — 162nd St., Gardena.

25 years—Donald G. Paine, bollernaker, 715 Vincent Park, Redondo Beach; Ernest S. McConahay, welder, 3314 Newton St., Torrance; and Donald G. Brammer, inspector, Long Beach.

Montgomery High Paper Wins Health Writing Award

The "Knight Life," student aewspaper of Bishop Montgomery High, has been awarded a certificate of honor in a nationwide contest for good health writing conducted by the National Tuberculosis association in cooperation with the local Christmas Seal organization. Of the 15 entries from Los Angeles area high schools, only five reserved this special award.

Called the "School Press Project," the competition was conducted locally by the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Los Angeles County. An entries were then forwarded to the national association for judging in compe-
