San Joaquin Sheriff to Start Program

Sheriff Michael N. Canlis of San Joaquin County has been appointed chairman of the newly formed Community and Human Relations Committee of the California Peace Officers' Association.

The committee, composed of key law enforcement officers, will deal with community factors effecting law enforcement on a state-wide basis.

Formation of the group came under the direction of Sheriff Peter J. Pitech, president of the 7,000 member peace officers association.

The sheriff's administrative inspector, Howard H. Earle, was named vice chairman.
