

MRS. RICHARD McLACHLAN
(Portrait by Seeman)

Riggs-McLachlan Vows

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Sue Ann Riggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Riggs, 1624 W. 257th St., Harbor City, became the bride of Richard McLachlan in an afternoon service at the Gardena Ward of the Church of Jesus Christ, Latter Day Saints, on June 12. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. James McLachlan, 907 Gastine St., Torrance.

For her wedding, the bride wore an empire gown of white peau de soie appliqued with lace. A net and lace floral headpiece held her full veil and she carried white orchids encircled by white daisies.

Bridal attendants, in orange peau de soie and carrying daisies, were Mrs. Patsy Riggs, matron of honor; Linda Bethurem, Anna Maier, Judy Rayner, Molly Travers, bridesmaids; and Carrie Strayer, flower girl.

Bob Hoppers was best man and ushers were Tommy Henrich, Chuck Riggs, LaMar Edwards and Michael Travers.

Bishop T. Hendry officiated at the marriage. A church reception followed, with Judy Hendrich in charge of the bride's book.

The newly-married couple spent a honeymoon in Palm Springs and are now at home in San Francisco.

Both are graduates of Narbonne High school and Harbor College.

Gala Party Closes Year For Society

The beautiful garden and patio at the home of Mrs. Elles Cook, 1625 Fern Ave., was the setting for the annual Garden Party of the Nativity Altar Society. The affair, held in the afternoon of June 8, was enjoyed by fifty members and guests.

As each guest arrived she was greeted and presented with a floral nametag by Mrs. William Camp.

The social hour was highlighted by the punch bowl garnished with a frozen fruit ring prepared by Mrs. Jo Zarro and her Guild, while the pot-luck luncheon, under the direction of Mrs. James O'Brien, featured many prized recipes of the Guild members. Mrs. Charles Butterfield was recipient of the door prize.

Chairmen of other Guilds participating in this last social affair of the season were Mmes. Walter Cason, Nicholas Zupparde, John Ariza, F. A. Cameron, Eugene McGovern, R. L. Moffitt, James O'Brien, Daniel Moore, N. E. Carstensen, Carroll Thornton and Elles Cook.

The Society will resume its functions starting with the regular meeting on Sept. 21.

Iowa Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald L. Miller and daughter, Susan Elaine, have arrived from Woodward, Iowa, to visit Mrs. Miller's father, at 2611 Carson St. They are also visiting her mother and brothers in Los Angeles. Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Miller was Miss Connie Strobridge of Torrance.

Services Recognized

A busy year, with projects benefitting their community, has been completed by the Cadet Girl Scout Troop 1538. For these hours of service, the Diana Junior Women's Club presented the troop with an award certificate. Mrs. Jack Covey, center, leader of the troop with Debbie Kiefer, patrol leader at left, and Sandra Covey, treasurer, right, scan their certificate as Dianas, standing, from left, Mmes. Joint Installation Planned

Mrs. Tava Miekley, a past president, was returned unanimously to the presidency of the Harbor View Ladies Auxiliary to the Fleet Reserve Assn. at the annual election. Mrs. Miekley will succeed Mrs. Michael Doktor of Lomita.

The new president, a resident of Wilmington, has served as president twice before. Last year, she was vice president, served on the board of directors, and was a delegate to the caucus and convention.

A joint installation with the Fleet Reserve branch will be held on Thursday evening, July 1 at 8 p.m. at the Ulabrand Hall, San Pedro. Harry Fralich of Torrance will be installed as head of the Fleet Reserve. John Hunt of Compton will install the men.

Mrs. Joseph Keehan, of Long Beach, past national president and member of Unit 43, and her installing team will officiate at the auxiliary installation.

Other elected officers for the new year are Mmes. Harry Fralich, vice president; Michael Doktor, junior past president; Earl Rush, secretary; Elvis Patterson, treasurer; Harry Setzer, chaplain; Ellen Warner, sergeant-at-arms. On the board of directors are Mmes. Harry Setzer, Mary Kellmon, Emily

Cofield, Catherine Loro and Claude Fowler.

Mrs. Joseph Breau will be flag bearer and Mrs. Charles Batchelor, banner bearer.

All national and past national officers of southern California Fleet Reserve branches and auxiliaries will be guests at the installation and buffet reception which follows.

Myer Family Returns From Eastern Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Myer and daughters, Sherrie and Caryle, have returned from a two weeks vacation trip. The family flew from Torrance to Tulsa, Okla. and then to Chicago. By plane they traveled to Washington D.C., where they rented a car for a tour of this historic area, visiting Williamsburg, Va.

Driving north to New York, they visited the World's Fair during their five day stay. Boston was their next destination. They spent a weekend in the Lexington and Concord area where they were guests of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Frank Hagerty, formerly of Torrance.

The vacationers flew home from Boston. Recent Southland visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Terrace Verbois and son, Gregory, of Baton Rouge, La., who were houseguests of Major and Mrs. Cole Berggreen of Torrance.
