Attired in full length pink empire gowns, the bridal attendants were Mrs. Robert H. Bauman, matron of honor; Mmes. Michael Bartlett, Robert Compher, Norman Meyers, and Miss Dawn Wood, bridesmaids. Their bouquets were of pink roses and carnations.

Robin Wood served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Robert Sletten, Jeff Conway, Robert Pitcher, and Donald Woods.

Rev. Paul Cox, pastor, officiated at the vow exchange, which was followed by a church reception.

Gold Key Award Breakfast Set

Complimenting local community volunteer leaders and their counterparts from every sector of the county, the 24th annual Gold Key Award Breakfast will be held Tuesday, Oct. 19, at 8:45 a.m. in the Hollywood Palladium.

The traditional event sets the stage for the annual fall door-to-door appeal for local voluntary health and welfare agencies, now called the United Crusade, (the United Way and the American Red Cross).

The 1965 wearer of the symbolic Gold Key will be a woman who has shown exceptional volunteer leadership for at least 10 years in health, welfare, cultural and religious fields, according to Mrs. William A. Brackenridge, countywide chairman of the United Way Woman's Committee, sponsoring the event for the United Crusade. Mrs. Lloyd Stevens Nix was the 1964 winner.

Also traditionally presented at the breakfast are several Agency Leadership Awards given in recognition of dedicated volunteer work in a United Way community service.

Heading program arrangements is Mrs. Charles Luckman, member-at-large of the United Way West Area board and active for the past 10 years in various campaign posts. She is a past president of the Los Angeles Child Guidance Clinic, a United Way agency, and one of the national board of ARCS (Achievement Rewards for College Scientists) Foundation.

On Mrs. Luckman's committee are Mmes. Ralph Edwards, Howard Ahmanson, Arden Day, Jr., Ernest E. Debs, Bruce E. Elliott and Cornwell Jackson (Gail Patrick).

The first Gold Key was awarded in 1942 to the late Mrs. Albert (Kate) Crutcher, known for her lifetime of volunteer service to Children's Hospital. Since then, traditions surrounding the recognition event have grown with its scope.
