Lincoln-Phillips Vows

Returning from a San Francisco honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew A. Phillips are now at home in Inglewood. The former Katharine A. Lincoln, daughter of Mrs. Katharine Stafford, 1681 Gramercy Ave., Torrance, and Mr. Clarence Lincoln of Gardena, became the bride of Matthew Phillips on July 12 in a high noon ceremony at the Torrance Methodist Church.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Phillips, 1943 Reynosa Dr., Torrance.

Mr. Lincoln, escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a wedding gown of French lace over nylon, fashioned with a square scalloped neckline, long pointed sleeves and a floor-length skirt. A white satin bow held her illusion veil and she carried lilies-of-the-valley and white roses.

Attired in long yellow nylon gowns, the bride's attendants were Misses Caroline Lincoln, Angel Smith and Kay Drury. Their bouquets were yellow and white carnations.

Best man duties were performed by William Schuchman and seating the more than 100 guests were Mike Kelly and Gene Steckmyer.

Rev. Arthur Nagel conducted the vow exchange, which was followed by a reception in the church patio. The bride's mother entertained at a dinner party at her home following the reception.

The bride is a 1963 graduate of Gardena High School; her husband, a 1962 graduate of Torrance High, is attending El Camino College.

A great time to go Cadillac!

If you have considered moving up to Cadillac, this summer is the perfect time to act. Whether you travel across town or across America, nothing can equal a new or used Cadillac for luxury, comfort, value and performance.

Many wonderful pleasures go with you wherever you go in a Cadillac. You enjoy Cadillac's unique performance — silken, quiet, instantly responsive — with its big V-8 engine and Turbo Hydra-Matic transmission. You get comfort that only Cadillac owners can fully appreciate. And, of course, there's the luxury and graciousness that only Cadillac can provide. On the practical side, there's the satisfaction of knowing that Cadillac operating costs are the envy of many less distinguished cars — and that Cadillac holds its value better than any other car built in the land. Whether you select a new 1965 Cadillac or one that has seen previous service, you know you travel with the finest. For a new or used Cadillac, see your nearest authorized Cadillac dealer. His reputation for customer attention and his quality service will make you both proud and happy as the owner of the Standard of the World.
