

The Wonders of Magic

For the first time, a class in magic is being offered at the YWCA, for children 9 to 12 every Tuesday from 3 to 4 p.m. and for teenagers from 4 to 5 p.m. Dennis Brellein, South High student, who has studied magic for five years, is the instructor. Dennis is also available for club programs. Here, the magician baffles his audience with the "disappearing" act. At right, he shows the empty cabinet to Bobby Gartland, 15, South High student, and Theresa Richter, 7, Anza student. In the left picture, the artist makes Jenny Deppe, 13, reappear in what was an empty cabinet. More information regarding the classes, which are to open July 27, may be secured by calling the YWCA.
