ECC Sets Summer Concert

Climaxing a six-week summer course, the El Camino College Summer Chorus will offer a Summer Patio Concert at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Director Crist L. Mikkelsen

extends an invitation to the college community to attend the special summer evening event without charge. The short, outdoor concert will be presented in the Music Building patio, directly adjacent to the college Campus Theater, facing Redondo Beach boulevard west of Crenshaw.

Music, Mikkelsen announces, is designed "to please young and old, featuring the chorus of more than 50 voices, ensembles and soloists in selections from the recent popular musicals, 'Oliver,' 'Music Man' and Stephen Foster favorites."

SELECTIONS will also include negro spirituals, patriotic songs and "a very brief comic opera" called, "Speak Up."

Director Mikkelsen will be assisted by Loretta Nicassio at the piano and Skip Hockett on the banjo. Roger Wolff, a member of the chorus, will direct the selection tions from "Music Man." Special solos, duets and incidental solo parts will be presented by Yetta Benson, Gardena; Sandi Feldman and Bill Harper, Torrance; Mamie Holloway, Inglewood; Gay Kleimengagen, Hermosa Beach, and John Watson, Hawthorne.

ACCOUNT AGENTS Robert P. Novak and William O'Leary have been promoted to account agents by the All-State Insurance Companies. The agents are located at Allstate Insurance Center, 5001 Pacific Coast Highway.

Area Men Are Graduated by Police Academy

Two Torrance residents were graduated from the Los Angeles Police Academy July 16 after completing 12 weeks of intensive police training.

Included in the 98-member class were Officers Charles L. Brown and Robert A. Nelson. Both men were assigned to the 77th Street Division upon graduation.

ATTEND CONFERENCE

Two Torrance men, M. A. Hunter and D. H. Broussard, were among approximately 1,800 representatives and wives from all areas of the United States attending the 1965 Leaders Conference of the American National Insurance Co. in Las Vegas. Hunter is the assistant district manager and Broussard an agent of the Torrance branch office.
