For the true sports car enthusiast, here's the arrow-swift MGB — all new from bumper to bumper. New power from a larger engine. New styling based on an all-steel, unit-construction body. New safety from bigger brakes. And new comfort, because now the MGB has wind-up windows, a quick-stowing top, and a smartly redesigned cockpit. But not everything's new. The MGB has retained the same classic road manners of its predecessors — exceptional cornering, no lurch or fade when braked, and a top speed of 100-plus without laboring. And she wears the same MG emblem that has meant meticulous craftsmanship and superior performance of this great breed of car since 1925.

Come see one soon. Could be you're just the breed of man who'll enjoy the thrill of driving and owning one of these powerful, responsive new MGB's.
