

Queen of Ascot To Be Selected

Loveliest from surrounding communities will compete for the title of "Miss Ascot Park, 1965" with finals set for Saturday night, Aug. 14. The contest will be staged in conjunction with the 100-lap California Racing Assn. big car race that same date.

Ascot president Harry Schooler expects some thirty Southland beauties to compete in the pageant, with at least twelve finalists expected to compete in the Aug. 14 finals.

Schooler expects entries from Gardena, Lawndale, Long Beach, Compton, Inglewood, Torrance, Redondo Beach, Manhattan Beach, Hermosa Beach, San Pedro, Los Angeles, Santa Monica, Culver City, Venice and the San Fernando Valley.

The new "Miss Ascot Park" will succeed brunette Joan Gibbs of La Habra, and will reign as official hostess at all Ascot auto and motorcycle racing events for the coming 12 months.

Also on hand the evening of Aug. 14 will be the cream of CRA drivers, with some fifty Chevies, Offies, Buicks and other top sprint cars competing in the 100-lap event.

Favored will be 1965 point leader Dick Fries of San Diego, '64 champ Hal Minyard of Crestline, runnerup Bob Hogle of Buena Park, Paul Jones of Torrance, Ned Spath of Ojai and a host of others.

MEET THE CHALLENGE!

SERVE WITH PRIDE IN THE NATIONAL GUARD

HOWDY, ROWDY . . . Clint Eastwood, who portrays Rowdy Yates on the TV series "Rawhide," gets acquainted with Penny Ward, "Miss Redondo Beach Harbor" during the Hollywood Hackers - Southern California Sports Broadcasters celebrity golf tournament Sunday at Los Verdes Country Club Golf Course. Redondo Beach Harbor Assn. sponsored the tourney to assist the Redondo Beach sister city programs in Ensenada and La Paz.

Shooting Champions Meet

Bob Randle of 3519 Crikewood St., Torrance, will compete in the 1965 National Smallbore Rifle (.22 caliber) Championships starting Sunday.

The national matches are a joint endeavor of the United States Armed Forces, NRA and the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice.

Randle will be among more than 1,200 competitors. They represent the country's top smallbore marksmen and will fire, for honors and awards, in the smallbore rifle championships.

In the national matches there will be more than 100 individual events. They fall into three main categories, smallbore rifle, high-powered rifle and pistol.

More than 7,000 competitors will gather at Camp Perry to determine the best rifle and pistol shots in the United States.

An important aspect of the national matches is the small arms firing school conducted by skilled instructors of the Army's Marksmanship Training Unit, Fort Benning, Georgia.

This School is designed to train citizens in the safe and efficient use of service rifles and pistols. The NRA also conducts a course for junior shooters and those desiring to become rifle marksmanship instructors.

FISHING REPORT

Good news for the anglers who prefer skiff fishing in Newport Bay over the long-haul albacore specials.

Art's Landing bay fishing experts report action nearing the "red hot" stage on bass and halibut, with spotfin and yellowfin croaker making a comeback.

Live "Ghost Shrimp" (crawfish) is turning the angling trick on bass and halibut, each running 4 to 6 lbs.—nice pan size. Those who know where the best fishing hole can be found and using the crawfish to good advantage for croaker running from 2 to 5 lbs.

But the feather trollers—a new type of bay fishing developed just a short while ago—are still the steady boys. Day in and day out they bring back the most fish.

Also furnishing action in the bay are sea trout and several schools of small barracuda and bonito.

Meanwhile, out between the 60-mile bank and the 213 spot the albacore are ganged up waiting for the green waters closer to shore to break up so they can make the prediction of the Fish and Game come true and give us an "inside" run around San Clemente and Catalina Islands.

Action out there—and it's a long 8-10 hour jaunt—is still spotty. One day it's a bonanza, the next is skunksville. Few landings are running daily albacore specials and are waiting for the longfins to move in closer.
