

Ulrich Jaeger Wins Top Carrier Honors In July

ULRICH JAEGER

Ulrich Jaeger of 3205 W. 180th St., has been honored as the Press-Herald "Carrier of the Month" for July, according to Darrell Wescott, Press-Herald circulation manager.

Young Jaeger was described as "as serious minded young businessman who has a genuine concern for his subscribers" by Wescott.

Jaeger spends his spare time on an unusual hobby—collecting and assimilating cultural and political data on foreign nations. He has an extensive file on nearly every principal nation in the world. He plans to study law and become a practicing attorney.

Aquacade - Carnival

'Wish Upon a Star' Is Theme of Annual Show

The world of make believe will become reality for several hours, Friday and Saturday when the Torrance Recreation Department presents the 10th annual Aquacade—"Wish Upon a Star."

Starfish, seahorses and octopi will occupy "Davy Jones Locker," at the Aquacade, and the "Witches Hut" will sell special candied apples at a Carnival which will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. preceding the Aquacade.

Featuring over 70 young people directed by synchronized swim instructors Tibby Bova and Jean Gregory, the Aquacade will be presented at 8:30 p.m. at the Victor E. Benstead Plunge, 3331 Torrance Blvd.

"The Ugly Duckling," "The Three Bears," and a "Winter Wonderland" will express this year's theme, "Wish Upon a Star."

In past years, the synchronized swimming, solo, dual and group swimming acts have been centered around such themes as "Tales of Paul Bunyan," "In Daze of Knights," and "Aqua-Americana."

Molotov Cocktail Explodes

Quick action by the manager of a Torrance drive-in restaurant prevented what might have been a serious fire at 12:08 a.m. Thursday morning.

Kenneth R. Moore grabbed a fire extinguisher and put out flames in the drive-in's business office, 21721 Western Ave., after an unknown person opened the rear door and tossed in a Molotov cocktail.

Three persons, including Moore's wife, were in the area when the quart bottle of kerosene was tossed into the building. It was ignited by a cloth stuffed in the bottle. Police turned fragments of the bottle and cloth over to the Torrance Fire Department for investigation.

1,200 will be installed for the performances, Jim Armstrong, coordinator of the Aquacade announced.

There is no charge for the Aquacade, but a small charge will be required for the carnival booths which are planned by the Torrance Parks and Playground staffs.

The art of foot painting will be demonstrated at the "Mary Poppins Dance Booth." Corn-on-the-cob, hot dogs, and sno-cones will be sold to add to the carnival atmosphere.

An all-city variety show, directed by Miss Kathi O'Bitz will feature two hours of entertainment from dancing dragons to guitar strumming. The Aquacade-Carnival is one of the most popular annual events in Torrance, and everyone is invited to attend for free entertainment.

Guest Minister Will Conduct Chapel Service

Guest minister at the Wayfarers' Chapel for the 11 a.m. service today will be the Rev. E. L. Bennett, minister emeritus of the Church of the New Jerusalem in Melbourne, Australia. Before his retirement he served for 26 years as a minister of the New Church in Great Britain and Australia.

The Rev. Robert Loring Young, pastor of the Wayfarers' Chapel, has extended an invitation to members of the community to attend the service.

Crain Elected

Notice of election to Honorary Life Membership in the Ballut Abyad Temple AAONMS, Albuquerque, N. M., has been received by John G. L. Crain, industrial development consultant.

Crain is a member of the Torrance Masonic Lodge 447, Los Angeles Consistory Scottish Rite Bodies, Al Malaikah Shrine Temple, and the Transportation Shrine Club.

OBITUARIES

Wayne B. Popp

Funeral services for Wayne Brent Popp, 24, who died Aug. 3, were held Friday at the Inglewood Cemetery Mortuary chapel. The Rev. Harold M. Slusher of the United Brethren Church of Gardena officiated.

Born in East Liverpool, Ohio, Mr. Popp lived at 4706 Ave. C, Torrance. An electrical technician with the motion picture industry, he was a graduate of George Washington High School, Long Beach, and a life member of Boy Scout Troop 676 of Gardena.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne A. Popp, and brother, George T. Popp.

N. Wisniewski

Requiem mass for Narcyz Wisniewski, 74, of 3334 W. Artesia Blvd., was celebrated last Tuesday at St. Catherine La Bore Church. Rosary was recited Tuesday evening.

Mr. Wisniewski, born in Chocz, Poland, had lived in the area for 20 years. He died July 30 in Torrance.

He is survived by two sons, Edward and Zygmund Wisniewski, both of Torrance; a daughter, Mrs. Jeannette Janowski of Torrance, and six grandchildren. Also surviving is a brother, Michael Wisniewski of Milwaukee, Wis. Interment was in Holy Cross Cemetery, with Dunaway Fox Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

G. W. Schindler

Funeral services for George W. Schindler, 70, were held Friday at the Cleveland Funeral Home chapel in San Pedro. Mr. Schindler died Aug. 2 in Long Beach Veterans Hospital.

A native of Illinois, Mr. Schindler had lived in San Pedro for 41 years. He recently had moved to Romoland, Calif. A member of the San Pedro Masonic Lodge 332, he also was a member of the Fleet Reserve Association.

Mr. Schindler is survived by a daughter, Mickie Van Mulligan of San Pedro; a son, George W. Schindler Jr. of Torrance; three sisters, two brothers, and five grandchildren. Also surviving is one great-grandchild.

Interment was in Green Hills Memorial Park.

Nora M. Whitaker

Funeral services for Nora M. Whitaker, 81, of 937 S. Osage Ave., Inglewood, will be held tomorrow at the Dunaway-Fox Mortuary Chapel. Graveside services and interment will follow in Escondido Cemetery, Escondido, Calif.

Mrs. Whitaker was born in Weir, Kan., and had lived in this area for the past 46 years. She died July 30 in Inglewood.

She is survived by her husband, Harold D. Whitaker; two sons, Kelvin H. Whitaker of Camarillo and J. Leland Whitaker of Orange Cove, Calif., and a daughter, Mrs. Margaret W. Thorne of Hawthorne. Also surviving are six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Associate Minister To Preach

The Rev. Wayne C. Jones, associate minister at the Torrance First Church of the Nazarene, 1501 W. Carson St., will be filling the pulpit for the next three weeks.

He will be preaching in place of the pastor, the Rev. R. Wallis Kornegay, who will be on vacation through Aug. 22.

Before coming to the Torrance church as associate minister two years ago, the Rev. Jones was pastor at the Hermona Beach Church of the Nazarene for nine years.

He has been a Nazarene minister for 38 years, including 11 years at Charleston, W. Va., and 11 years at Grafton, W. Va.

He also has been an evangelist and associate pastor at other churches.

The Rev. Jones will be in charge of the two regular Sunday services at the Torrance church, at 10:45 a.m. and 7 p.m., and the "Come Ye Apart Hour" at 7 o'clock Wednesday nights.

Wood Faculty Honors Aides

Students at Howard Wood School who assisted teachers during summer school were honored by the faculty at a party given at the close of the school in the faculty lounge.

Co-chairmen were Miss Mary Lee Lyman, and Mrs. Valery Bradford, sixth-grade teachers.

Luncheon guests included: Josephine Galera, Karen Tetzloff, Brenda Jones, Jean Labate, Barbara Perez, Katherine Nelson, Lynn Berkstresser, William Colisch, Richard Large, and Maria Morales.

Joe L. Dailey of Yermo, Calif., will speak on the history and geology of the Mojave Desert. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m.

Burglars

VIRGINIA CADY, 21007 Victor St., also reported theft of a stereo set from her car. She told officers the car was parked in the carport area of the apartment building in which she lives. The stereo was valued at $359.

Police were called to 20336 Anza Ave. twice on Thursday to investigate burglaries. Charles Correia, 27, told officers someone entered his apartment between 8 p. m. and 3 a. m. Wednesday evening and took $250 in cash and a watch valued at $35.

Late Thursday evening, police returned to the building to investigate a report by James W. Holmes, who said someone had taken about $200 from his apartment. Holmes, a bar manager, said the money, mostly in coins, was in two bank bags.

Police reported they could find no sign of a forced entry in either case.

Sunday School Students Win Awards in Contest

Six children have been honored as winners and runners-up in a Sunday School contest at Torrance First Church of the Nazarene.

Crowned as king and queen were Sharon Cooney, 10, and Eddie Davis, 11.

Runners-up were Sandy Jilbert, 9, and Eddie Arnold, 9. During a four-week period in June, youngsters in the children's departments were given points for visitors they brought to Sunday School.

Two points were awarded for bringing new people, and one point was given for bringing absentees who were not present the previous Sunday.

Miss Cooney had the most points with 38.

Awards were presented to the king and queen by Richard Cooney, chairman of the church school board. The two winners received Bibles, $5 gifts and a $5 certificate toward summer camp registration.

The two runners-up received New Testaments and $5 toward camp.

Two other youths who earned more than 30 points and were eligible for $5 toward camp were Sandra Turley and Debbie Jilbert.
